

Perceptions of Sustainability in Heritage Studies

Editor
Marie-Theres Albert

DE GRUYTER

!M uniTujin t>tu

Content

Introduction 1

Perceptions of the Contributors 3

Marie-Theres Albert

I Introductory Reflections 9

Mission and Vision of Sustainability Discourses in Heritage Studies 11

Marie-Theres Albert

Culture in Moving the MDGs to the Post-2015 Development Agenda: Some Reflections on the Role of Living Heritage for Sustainable Development 21

Minja Yang

Sustainability in the World Heritage Convention: The Making of a Policy Framework 35

Francesco Bandarin

II History and Documents 47

Natural Heritage and Sustainable Development – A Realistic Option or Wishful Thinking? 49

Barbara Engels

The Landscape Approach – A Global Context for Sustainability — 59

Mechtild Rossler

Sustainable Development and Intangible Cultural Heritage: Integrating Culture into Development 71

Shina Erlewein

III Paradigms 85

From Mitigation to Adaptation: A New Heritage Paradigm for the Anthropocene 87

Giovanni Boccardi

Social Sustainability of the Historic Urban Landscape 99

Michael Turner

Urban Heritage and Sustainable Development in South Asia: A Plea for a Heritage-Aware Approach — 113

Jyoti Hosagrahar

Recognition of Indigenous Peoples' Sacred Natural Sites and the Cultural Dimension of Sustainable Development —125

Robert Rode

Culture, Heritage and Solidarity in the Context of Sustainable Development 137

Manuel Peters

IV Theory, Methods and Practices —145

Disciplinary and Epistemological Perceptions

Cultural Landscapes: Heritage Preservation as a Foundation for Sustainable Regional Development 147

Joaquim Sabate, Mark Warren

A Reflection on Methodological Approaches in Assessing and Implementing Social Sustainability in Historical Public Spaces —159

Solmaz Yadollahi

The Social Function of Cultural Heritage: Conservation Practices on the Basis of Sociocultural Sustainability —173

Juliana Forero

Sustainability in Heritage Management Strategies

Cultural Heritage Management and Sustainability —189

Ron van Oers

World Heritage and Sustainable Tourism: A Multifaceted Relationship — 203

Carol Westrik

Heritage Impact Assessments as a Tool to Open Up Perspectives for Sustainability: Three Case Studies Related to Discussions Concerning the Visual Integrity of World Heritage Cultural and Urban Landscapes 215

Michael Kloos

Annex 229

Notes on Contributors 231

Notes on Peers 235

Index 237