The Uses and Methods of

Martin Shubik

|        |   |   |   |   | nschH II |     |   |          | astadiK |
|--------|---|---|---|---|--------------|-----|---|----------|-------------|
| В      | i | В | L | ı | 0            | T   | Н | Ε        | K           |
| Invent |   |   |   | - |              | - 4 |   |   |             |

Standort:

ELSEVIER

New York/Oxford/Amsterdam

Contents

|    | Acknowledgments  | 1X  |
|----|--|-----|
|    | Introduction   | 3   |
| 1  | Gaming, Simulation, and Theories of Behavior   | 6   |
| 2  | On the Many Goals of Gaming  | 26  |
| 3  | Techniques, Modeling, and Languages  | 49  |
| 4  | Costs and Procedures   | 59  |
| 5  | Facilities   | 83  |
| 6  | Intention, Specification, Control, and Validation  | 100 |
| 7  | A Guide to Information Sources on Gaming andRelated Topics                                     | 119 |
| 8  | Gaming for Business, Management, OperationsResearch, and Economics: A Literature Guide         | 134 |
| 9  | Experimental Gaming: A Literature Guide  | 144 |
| 10 | Gaming in Political Science, International Relations and for Military Purposes: A Literature Guide | 166 |
| 11 | Gaming and Related Topics: A Literature Guide  | 182 |
|    | Index  | 193 |