

WIPOL - EST

French Planning in Theory and Practice

by Saul Estrin and Peter Holmes
IVE

London

GEORGE ALLEN & UNWIN

Boston

Sydney

TECHNISCHE HOCHSCHULE
DARMSTADT

Inv.-Nr.:

H6703

WIRTSCHAFTSPOLITIK
(VWL II)

Contents

List of Tables	page	iv
List of Abbreviations		v
Preface		vii
Introduction		1
Part One: Planning Theory		5
1 Models of Indicative Planning		7
The Case for Indicative Planning		7
The General Equilibrium Approach		9
Demand Expectations Models		19
New Approaches to the Theory of Indicative Planning		23
Notes		27
2 An Alternative Justification for Indicative Planning		28
The Case		28
The Potential for Indicative Planning		30
The Plan and the State		40
The Role of Planning		45
Planning for the State Sector		54
Notes		58
Part Two: The Practice of French Planning		59
Introduction		60
3 French Planning: A Quantitative History and Evaluation		61
Introduction		61
A History of Planning, 1946–81		62
Interpreting the Numbers		69
An Assessment of Macro-Economic Forecasts, 1952–80		71
French Growth by International Standards		84
Summary		85
Notes		86
4 The French Method of Planning		89
Introduction		89
The Actors		89
Methods of Plan Construction		98
The Substance of the Plans		104
Union and Business Reactions to Planning		115
The Broader Political Context		118
Notes		120
5 Macro-Economic Policy and the Plan		124
Introduction		124
The Econometric Models Used for Planning		124
Formal Policy Optimization before 1975: 'Project Optimix'		129
Macro-Economic Policy and Planning, 1970–81		131
Projections Détaillées Glissantes		148
The Plan, Macro-Economic Policy, and Uncertainty		150
Notes		155

iv Contents

6	The Plan and the Public Sector	157
	Introduction	157
	The Plan and the Budget	157
	Planning and Programming Techniques in the Public Sector: The Micro-Economic Side	164
	The Nationalized Industries	169
	The Political Economy of the State Sector	173
	Notes	175
7	Planning and Industrial Policy	177
	Introduction	177
	The IVth and Vth Plans	178
	The VIth Plan	182
	Industrial Policy and the VIIth Plan	187
	The Barre Era, 1976–81	189
	The Socialists in Power: More Industrial Planning?	191
	Conclusions	192
	Notes	193
8	Final Conclusions	195
	 Bibliography	 198
	Non-Official Sources	198
	Official Sources	208
	Index	211

List of Tables

3.1	The Development of the 'Basic' Sectors of the Ist Plan	63
3.2	Plan Forecasts and Outcomes: Levels	72
3.3	Plan Forecasts and Outcomes: Annual Rates of Growth	74
3.4	Cumulative Deviations of Plan Forecasts from Outcomes	77
3.5	Forecasts, Trends, and Outcomes by Plan	78
3.6	Deviation of Forecast and Outcome from Long-Run Trend	79
3.7	Evaluation of Plan Forecasts of the Outcomes, Compared with Those of the Alternative Forecasts	82
3.8	The Stability of French Growth by International Standards	85
5.1	Macro-Economic Indicators, 1949–80	132
5.2	The Evolution of the VIIth Plan's Growth Rate Forecasts, 1973–76	138
5.3	Employment Growth 1960–74 and VIIth Plan Projections for 1974–80	140
6.1	Public Investment and the Plan, 1962–75; Implementation Rates and Sectoral Priorities	159
6.2	The Programmes Finalisés of the VIth Plan	161
6.3	The PAPs of the VIIth Plan and Their Implementation Rates	163