

Modern perspectives on the gold standard

edited by

TAMIM BAYOUMI

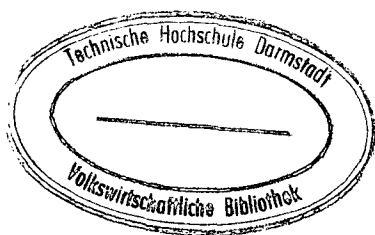

International Monetary Fund

BARRY EICHENGREEN

University of California at Berkeley

MARK P. TAYLOR

University of Liverpool

CAMBRIDGE
UNIVERSITY PRESS

Contents

List of figures	page ix
List of tables	xii
Notes on the contributors	xiv

I Introduction

- | | |
|--|-----------|
| 1 Modern perspectives on the gold standard: introduction | 3 |
| Tamim Bayoumi, Barry Eichengreen and Mark P. Taylor | |
| 2 Unit roots, shocks and VARs and their place in history: an introductory guide | 17 |
| Terence C. Mills | |

II Operation of the gold standard

- | | |
|--|------------|
| 3 The gold standard as a commitment mechanism | 55 |
| Michael D. Bordo and Finn E. Kydland | |
| 4 Market efficiency and regime efficiency under the 1925–1931 dollar/sterling gold standard | 101 |
| Lawrence H. Officer | |
| 5 Credibility and fundamentals: were the Classical and interwar gold standards well-behaved target zones? | 129 |
| C. Paul Hallwood, Ronald MacDonald and Ian W. Marsh | |

III Adjustment mechanisms

- | | |
|---|------------|
| 6 The stability of the gold standard and the evolution of the international monetary fund system | 165 |
| Tamim Bayoumi and Barry Eichengreen | |

7	International adjustments under the Classical gold standard: evidence for the United States and Britain, 1879–1914	189
	Charles W. Calomiris and R. Glenn Hubbard
8	Balance of payments adjustment under the gold standard policies: Canada and Australia compared	218
	Trevor J.O. Dick, John E. Floyd and David Pope
IV	Monetary issues
9	Money demand and supply under the gold standard: the United Kingdom, 1870–1914	261
	Forrest H. Capie and Geoffrey E. Wood
10	Stability and forward-looking behavior: the demand for broad money in the United Kingdom, 1871–1913	284
	Mark P. Taylor and Geoffrey E. Wood
V	Exchange rate behavior
11	The dollar/pound real exchange rate and fiscal policy during the gold standard period	309
	Graciela L. Kaminsky and Michael Klein
12	Exchange rate dynamics and monetary reforms: theory and evidence from Britain's return to gold	341
	Panos Michael, A. Robert Nobay and David A. Peel
VI	Conclusions
13	Déjà vu all over again: lessons from the gold standard for European monetary unification	365
	Barry Eichengreen
	Index	388