

SECOND EDITION

RUNNING

MS DOS[®]

By VAN WOLVERTON

The Microsoft[®] Guide to Getting the Most
Out of the Standard
Operating System
for the IBM[®] PC and 50 Other
Personal Computers

Drawings by Rick van Genderen

CONTENTS

Acknowledgments	ix
Introduction	xi

PART 1: GETTING TO KNOW DOS	1
1 What Is DOS?	3
2 Starting DOS	11
3 Taking a Test Drive	25
4 A Look at Files and Diskettes	39

PART 2: LEARNING TO USE DOS	59
5 Managing Your Files	61
6 Managing Your Diskettes	97
7 Managing Your Devices	119
8 DOS Is an International System	137
9 A Tree of Files	149
10 Managing Your Fixed Disk	175
11 Creating and Editing Files of Text	195
12 Using Edlin to Revise a File	217
13 Creating Your Own Commands	233
14 Taking Control of Your System	253
15 Creating Smart Commands	269

16	Creating More Smart Commands	293
17	Tailoring Your System	317
18	DOS and Local Area Networks	347

	PART 3: QUICK REFERENCE TO DOS COMMANDS	361
19	DOS Command Reference	363
	Appendix A: Preparing Your Fixed Disk	387
	Appendix B: Advanced Commands	393
	Appendix C: Glossary	397
	Index	411