

0

T-7 (Trade in place of migration

Abstract: An employment-oriented study with special reference to the Federal Republic of Germany,
Spain and Turkey

4A: U. Hiemenz and K. W. Schatz
A. NE: 5

Bevl | HIE

TECHNISCHE HOCHSCHULE
DARMSTADT

Inv.-Nr.:
H5822

WIRTSCHAFTSPOLITIK
(VWL II)

2. NE: /rog: Kelley
International Labour Office Geneva

CONTENTS

| | |
|---|-----|
| Foreword | v |
| Outline | 1 |
| International trade theory and recent trends | 3 |
| The detailed pattern of trade in manufactures | 21 |
| The case of the Federal Republic of Germany | 35 |
| Import competition from developing countries | 35 |
| Characteristics of the structurally weak industries | 39 |
| Skill and nationality of the workforce | 42 |
| Estimates of future employment trends | 45 |
| Sectoral employment | 46 |
| Regional employment | 54 |
| Employment of foreign workers | 56 |
| Determinants of trade-induced employment trends | 60 |
| Foreign investment | 63 |
| The cases of Spain and Turkey | 67 |
| Development policy since 1960 | 67 |
| Structure of production and external trade | 73 |
| Estimates of future employment trends and capital requirements | 76 |
| Conclusion | 87 |
| Appendices | |
| 1. Calculation of structure of specialisation | 97 |
| 2. Method of projecting the employment effects for the Federal Republic of Germany | 97 |
| 3. Data base and projection method in the case of Turkey | 99 |
| 4. Data base and projection method in the case of Spain | 100 |
| 5. Additional tables | 101 |