

Industrial Purchase Price Management

Brian Farrington

TECHNISCHE HOCHSCHULE DARMSTADT
Fachbereich 1
Gesamtbibliothek
Betriebswirtschaftslehre
Inventar-Nr. :	33.326
Abstell-Nr. :	A 29/90
Sachgebiete:	5.2.1.3
	00263924

Gower

in association with the Institute of Purchasing and Supply

Contents

List of Illustrations	vii
Foreword	xi
Preface	xiii
1 Purchasing Influence in Price Management. Establishing the initial price of a purchase; Managing purchase price increase requests; Achieving reductions in the existing purchase prices; Summary of role perception; The right philosophy	1
2 Industrial Buyer Behaviour. Industrial buying—modelling the process; Expectations; Further models of industrial buying process; Influence of the social sciences	18
3 Key Factors in Industrial Pricing. The marketing viewpoint; Methods of quoting prices; Pricing objectives; Hallmarks of competition	47
4 The Role of Costs in Pricing. Selection of overhead rates; Full cost pricing; Conversion cost pricing; Marginal cost pricing; Return on investment pricing; Flexible costing	66

5	The Role of Profits in Pricing. Return on capital employed; Replacement costs; Profit maximising policies	83
6	A Review of Current Practices. Price and the evaluation of purchasing performance; The formal contract; The nature of price objectives; The buyer's perception of pricing methods and profits; Management of purchase price increase requests; The difficulties of controlling purchase prices; Cost reduction objectives; Effective purchase price management	95
7	Negotiation Skills. Definitions; Decision making; Distributive and integrative bargaining; Attitudinal structuring; Interactional skills; Response traits	117
8	Purchase Price Management in Action New buy phase; Straight rebuy phase; Supplier development programme; Cost reduction programmes; Price increase request management; Contract price adjustment; Cost price adjustment—production purchases; The use of purchase price analysis when resourcing; Modified rebuy phase; Pricing behaviour on a major contract	133
9	Improving Management Capability. Organisational considerations; Product knowledge; Concessions to influence sales; Negotiation	167
	List of references	176
	Index	184