

Herrn Kollegen Körber
auf freundlichen Wunsch
Ronald Clapham

SMALL AND MEDIUM ENTREPRENEURS IN SOUTHEAST ASIA

by

Ronald Clapham

in co-operation with

Reiner Strunk, Heinz G.H. Schaldach, and Gisela Clapham

Translated by

Horst E. Schneider and Linda Mayes

Research Notes and Discussions Paper No. 49
INSTITUTE OF SOUTHEAST ASIAN STUDIES
1985

VB TU Darmstadt

CONTENTS

	Page
INTRODUCTION	1
I THE CONTRIBUTION OF SMALL AND MEDIUM ENTREPRENEURS TO SOCIAL AND ECONOMIC DEVELOPMENT	6
Towards a Definition of Desired Development Contributions	6
Identification of the Entrepreneurial Contribution to Individual Objectives	7
Economic Efficiency	8
Supplementing the Industrial Sector	14
Supplementing Consumer Supply	21
Use of Local Raw Materials	23
Development of National Entrepreneurial and Managerial Manpower Resources	24
Additional Capital Formation	27
Economical Use of Capital	30
Employment Effects	34
Changes in Labour and Social Relations	42
Regional Distribution of Development Effects	52
Socio-political Development	59
II FACTORS WHICH PROMOTE AND INHIBIT THE DEVELOPMENT CONTRIBUTIONS OF SMALL AND MEDIUM ENTREPRENEURS: THE EXPERIENCE IN INDONESIA AND MALAYSIA	69
Factors External to the Enterprise	70

General Economic Conditions and Specific Industrial Promotion	70
Experiences in Indonesia	72
Experiences in Malaysia	80
Location Conditions	95
Conditions on Markets	97
Institutional Representation of Small and Medium Enterprises	101
Internal Factors	104
Conditions of Management	104
Personnel Situation	112
Problems of Financial Control	113
Technical Production Conditions	115
Factors Having an Influence on Marketing	116
❖
III RECOMMENDATIONS FOR IMPROVING THE CONTRIBUTION MADE BY SMALL AND MEDIUM ENTERPRISES TO THE DEVELOPMENT PROCESS	119
Opportunities for Increasing Incentives and Reducing Obstacles in the Economic Environment of Small and Medium Enterprises	120
The Basic Idea: A Minimum of Regulations with a Maximum of Freedom	121
Improvement of the Information System in Economic Matters	121
Integration of Small and Medium Enterprises in Self-governing Organizations in the Economy	122
Removal of Obstacles to Obtaining Credit	123
Improved Technical Advisory Services	124
Promotion of Access to Sales Markets	126
Removing Obstacles caused by Location	128
Influencing Entrepreneurial Attitudes and Conduct through Training Provision	129
Trainers	129
Teaching Materials	129
Initial and Continuing Training Programmes and their Sponsoring Institutions	131
Efficiency Control	136