
THE SELF-ORGANIZING ECONOMY

Paul Krugman

Contents

Preface

v

PART I

Embryos, Earthquakes, and Economics

1

1	Self-Organization in Space	9
	The von Thünen–Mills Model	9
	Central Place Theory	13
	Schelling's Segregation Model	15
	Edge City Dynamics	21
2	Complex Landscapes	31
	The Emergence of Order	36
3	An Urban Mystery	39
	Meteorites, Earthquakes, and Cities	43
	Simon on Zipf	44
4	Principles of Self-Organization	47
	Order from Instability	47
	Order from Random Growth	49
5	Where We Stand	51

PART II

Self-Organization in Time and Space

53

6	Dynamics in Self-Organizing Systems	55
7	Temporal Self-Organization	61
	Two Questions about the Business Cycle	61
	Nonlinear Business Cycle Theory	63
	Percolation Economics	69
	Phase Locking and the Global Business Cycle	71
8	Models of Spatial Self-Organization	75

	The Edge City Model	76
	A Central Place Model	88
	Simon's Urban Growth Model	92
9	Concluding Thoughts	99
10	Appendix: The Evolution of Central Places	101
	Urban Morphogenesis: The Edge City Model	101
	A Central Place Model	106
	References	117
	Index	119