
Ethics and economic affairs

Edited by Alan Lewis and Karl-Erik Wärneryd

London and New York

Contents

List of figures, tables and exhibits	viii
About the contributors /	x
The contents of the book	xvii
Preface by Amitai Etzioni	xxi
Acknowledgements	xxii
1 The longstanding interest in business ethics: An introduction Karl-Erik Wärneryd and Alan Lewis	1
Part I Business ethics and management
2 Exit or voice? Lessons from companies in South Africa Philip J. Stone	17
3 Moral and ethical dimensions of managing a multinational business Lynne M. H. Rosansky	39
4 Management by ethics: A new paradigm and model for corporate ethics Richard H. Guerrette	51
5 Moralization as a link between idealism and naturalism in the ethical discourse Claes Gustafsson	115
6 Social responsibility in the human firm: Towards a new theory of the firm's external relationships John F. Tomer	125
Part II Case, questionnaire and experimental studies
7 Fairness in consumer pricing Patrick J. Kaufmann, Gwen Ortmeyer and N. Craig Smith	151

8 Social and ethical investing: Beliefs, preferences and the willingness to sacrifice financial return Alan Lewis and Paul Webley	171
9 Ethical issues in the world of finance: Two empirical studies Karl-Erik Wärneryd, Lars Bergkvist and Kristin Westlund	183
10 Ethical regulation of economic transactions: Solidarity frame versus gain-maximization frame Paul E. M. Ligthart and Siegwart Lindenberg	215

Part III A new economics?

11 Ethics, ideological commitment and social change: Institutionalism as an alternative to neoclassical theory Peter Söderbaum	233
12 Interpersonal relations: A disregarded theme in the debate on ethics and economics Benedetto Gui	251
13 Economy and ethics in functionally differentiated societies: History and present problems Josef Wieland	264
14 Social ownership: A comparison of the property rights, social choice and economic justice approaches Robert Stallaerts	286

Part IV Interdisciplinary perspectives

15 Niklas Luhmann's sociology of the economic system: Some moral implications William Ossipow	297
16 Ideology and morality in economics theory Monroe Burk	313
17 Politics, public choice and ethical progress Ralph E. Miner	335
18 Economics and the Enlightenment: Then and now Norman E. Bowie	348
19 Endpiece Alan Lewis and Karl-Erik Wärneryd	367
Index	375