

Hans-Jürgen Wagener (Ed.)

The Political Economy of Transformation

With 8 Figures

Physica-Verlag

A Springer-Verlag Company

Contents

Preface	v
----------------------	---

Part I Introduction

Chapter 1

Transformation as a Political-Economic Process H.-J. WAGENER	3
---	---

Part II The Political-Economic Theory of Transformation

Chapter 2

Capitalism by Democratic Design? Democratic Theory Facing the Triple Transition in Central and Eastern Europe C. OFFE	25
---	----

Chapter 3

Transition to a Market Economy as the Transformation of Coordination A. RYLL	45
--	----

Chapter 4

On the Convergence of Formal Rules: A Reformulation of Efficiency Arguments J. DE BEUS	61
--	----

Chapter 5

Which Institutionalism? Searching for Paradigms of Transformation in Eastern European Economic Thought J.M. KOVÁCS	85
--	----

Part III
Policy Aspects of Transformation

Chapter 6

On the Normative Theory of Transformation
L. CSABA	97

Chapter 7

Some Reflections on Privatization as a Means to Transform the Economic System: The Western Experience
B. DALLAGO	113

Chapter 8

The Paradox of Transformation: An Evolutionary Case for Rapid Privatization
I. GROSFELD	145

Chapter 9

Tax Policy Choices in New Market Economies— Administrative Restrictions
L. MUTÉN	161

Chapter 10

Perverse Effect of Fiscal Adjustment in Transition Economies
G.W. KOLODKO	175

Chapter 11

Industrial Restructuring and Microeconomic Adjustment in Poland. A Cross Sectoral Approach
S. ESTRIN and X. RICHEL	189

Part IV
The Alternative or the Odd Man Out?

Chapter 12

China's Transition to the Market: A Paradox of Transformation and its Institutional Solution
C. HERRMANN-PILLATH	209