

Beyond Keynesianism

The Socio-Economics of Production and Full Employment

Edited by Egon Matznér
and
Wolfgang Streeck

Edward Elgar

Contents

List of Tables and Figures	vii
Contributors	xi
Acknowledgements	xiii
1 Introduction: Towards a Socio-Economics of Employment in a Post-Keynesian Economy Egon Matzner and Wolfgang Streeck	1
Part 1: On Effective Supply Conditions
2 On the Institutional Conditions of Diversified Quality Production Wolfgang Streeck	21
3 Against De-Industrialisation: A Strategy for Old Industrial Areas Gernot Grabher	62
Part 2: On Effective Labour Market and Social Policy
4 On the Institutional Conditions of Effective Labour Market Policies Günther Schmid and Bernd Reissert	81
5 Does (De-)Regulation Matter? Employment Protection in West Germany Christoph F. Büchtemann	111
6 Employment and Industrial Restructuring in the United States and West Germany Eileen Appelbaum and Ronald Schettkat	137

Part 3: On Effective Demand Conditions

- 7 External Constraints on Fiscal Policies: An International Comparison
Hansjörg Herr 161
- 8 Monopolistic International Policy Co-ordination by DM-Appreciation: An Alternative to Flexible Exchange Rates and EMS-Harmonisation
Heinz-Peter Spahn 182
- 9 On 'Monopolistic Co-ordination' and Some International Consequences of German Unification
Jan Kregel 194
- 10 Employment Growth and the Speed of Industrial Innovation
Gerhard Hanappi and Michael Wagner 209

Part 4: Towards a Context Enhancing Full Employment

- 11 Policies, Institutions and Employment Performance
Egon Matzner 231
- Index* 261