APPLIED METHODS FOR TRADE POLICY ANALYSIS
A Handbook

Edited by

JOSEPH F. FRANCOIS
Erasmus University,
World Trade Organization,
and the Centre for Economic Policy Research

KENNETH A. REINERT
Kalamazoo College
Contents

List of Tables page vii
List of Figures xi
Acknowledgements xiii
List of Contributors xiv
A Note to Readers xv

Part I Introduction

1 Applied Methods for Trade Policy Analysis: An Overview
   Joseph F. Francois and Kenneth A. Reinert 3

Part II Basic Frameworks

2 Quantifying Commercial Policies Samuel Laird 27
3 Measuring Welfare Changes with Distortions
   William J. Martin 76
4 Social Accounting Matrices Kenneth A. Reinert and David W. Roland-Holst 94
5 Partial Equilibrium Modeling Joseph F. Francois and H. Keith Hall 122
6 Simple General Equilibrium Modeling
   Shantayanan Devarajan, Delfin S. Go, Jeffrey D. Lewis, Sherman Robinson, and Pekka Sinko 156

Part III Standard Applications

7 Sector-Focused General Equilibrium Modeling
   Bruce A. Blonigen, Joseph E. Flynn, and Kenneth A. Reinert 189
8 Multi-Market, Multi-Region Partial Equilibrium Modeling
   Vernon O. Roningen 231
9 Multi-Region General Equilibrium Modeling
   Thomas W. Hertel, Elena Ianchovichina, and Bradley J. McDonald 258
10 Household Disaggregation  Farida C. Khan 300

Part IV Extensions

11 Scale Economies and Imperfect Competition
   Joseph F. Francois and David W. Roland-Holst 331
12 Capital Accumulation in Applied Trade Models
   Joseph F. Francois, Bradley J. McDonald, and Håkan Nordström 364
13 Dynamics of Trade Liberalization  Christian Keuschnigg and Wilhelm Kohler 383
14 Trade and Labor Market Behavior  Karen E. Thierfelder and Clinton R. Shiells 435
15 Labor Market Structure and Conduct  Andréa M. Maechler and David W. Roland-Holst 479
16 Trade and the Environment  Hiro Lee and
   David W. Roland-Holst 517

Author Index 551
Subject Index 555