

G. B. J. BOMERS

MULTINATIONAL
CORPORATIONS
AND INDUSTRIAL RELATIONS

A comparative Study of West Germany and the Netherlands

IntWi

Technische Hochschule Darmstadt
Fachbereich Rechts- und Wirtschaftswissenschaften
Quantitative Wirtschaftspolitik

P 150

1976

Van Gorcum, Assen/Amsterdam, The Netherlands

CONTENTS

FOREWORD . . . . .	VII
ACKNOWLEDGMENT . . . . .	X
CONTENTS . . . . .	XI
LIST OF ABBREVIATIONS . . . . .	XV
 I. INTRODUCTION . . . . .	 1
The Problem . . . . .	1
Purpose . . . . .	2
Significance of the Study . . . . .	3
Scope and Limitations of the Study . . . . .	3
The Analytical Framework . . . . .	4
Justifications for the Use of the Dunlop Model . . . . .	6
Shortcomings and Modifications of the Dunlop Model . . . . .	6
The Multinational Corporation Defined . . . . .	7
Organization of Remaining Chapters . . . . .	8
 II. CONCEPTUAL FRAMEWORK AND REVIEW OF THE LITERATURE . . . . .	 9
Direct Effects . . . . .	11
A Conceptual Model . . . . .	12
The Nature of System Equilibrium . . . . .	12
The MNC as an Unbalancing Force . . . . .	13
Power Mitigating Circumstances . . . . .	14
Issues and Incidents . . . . .	16
The Issue Area . . . . .	16
Job Security . . . . .	17
Impact upon Union Bargaining Power . . . . .	18
Conflicts in Industrial Relations Practices . . . . .	21
General Issues . . . . .	21
Conclusions and Research Implications for this Study . . . . .	22
Responses to the MNC . . . . .	22
Alternative Ways of Restoring Balance . . . . .	23
Union Responses at the National Level . . . . .	25
Limitations of Efforts at the National Level . . . . .	26
	XI

Responses at the International Level . . . . .	28
Extension of the Conceptual Model . . . . .	28
Strategies and Case Illustrations . . . . .	31
Union Strategies . . . . .	31
MNC Views and Strategies . . . . .	39
Obstacles to the Internationalization of Industrial Relations . . . . .	43
Obstacles Internal to the Trade Union Movement . . . . .	43
Environmental Obstacles . . . . .	46
Summary . . . . .	48
 III. RESEARCH DESIGN AND METHODOLOGY . . . . .	 50
General Research Design . . . . .	50
Key Research Questions . . . . .	50
Nature Of Research Study . . . . .	51
The Selected Sample of Interviewees . . . . .	52
Worker Organizations . . . . .	53
Employers . . . . .	53
Government Organizations . . . . .	55
Interviewing Method . . . . .	55
The Interview Guide . . . . .	56
The Interview Process . . . . .	59
Limitations of the Study . . . . .	60
 IV. A COMPARATIVE SURVEY OF THE WEST GERMAN AND DUTCH INDUSTRIAL RELATIONS SYSTEMS AND AN OVERVIEW OF RELATED REGIONAL AND INTERNATIONAL BODIES . . . . .	 62
The National Industrial Relations Systems . . . . .	62
Environment of Industrial Relations . . . . .	63
Economic and Technological Environment . . . . .	63
Social Environment . . . . .	65
Political Environment . . . . .	67
The Industrial Relations Actors . . . . .	71
Worker Organizations . . . . .	71
Employers' Organizations . . . . .	77
Government Organizations . . . . .	79
Industrial Relations Processes . . . . .	81
Codetermination . . . . .	85
The Pertinent Regional and International Worker, Employers' and Government Organizations . . . . .	90
Worker Organizations . . . . .	90
Employers' Organizations . . . . .	93
Government Organizations . . . . .	94
Summary . . . . .	97

V. DIRECT IMPACT OF MNC'S ON INDUSTRIAL RELATIONS . . . . .	99
Dimensions of Multinational Business . . . . .	99
Introduction to Direct Effects . . . . .	102
Job Security . . . . .	104
Investment and Production Allocation Policies . . . . .	104
Permanent Transfer of Production . . . . .	107
Job Exportation . . . . .	110
Impact upon Union Bargaining Power . . . . .	115
Production Switching . . . . .	115
Financial Base of MNC's . . . . .	120
Locus of Decision Making . . . . .	122
Company Data and Financial Practices . . . . .	132
Industrial Relations Practices . . . . .	136
Related Questions . . . . .	138
Relative Degree of Danger . . . . .	138
Positive Aspects of MNC's . . . . .	139
Lagging Countervailing Powers . . . . .	140
MNC Criticism of Unions . . . . .	140
VI. INDIRECT IMPACT OF MNC'S ON INDUSTRIAL RELATIONS . . . . .	141
Institutional Action . . . . .	141
National Level . . . . .	142
Codetermination . . . . .	142
Regulation of MNC's . . . . .	146
European Level . . . . .	148
Codetermination . . . . .	148
Regulation of MNC's . . . . .	149
International Level . . . . .	152
Union and Employer Responses . . . . .	153
Status Report on Intergovernmental Activities regarding MNC's . . . . .	154
The Mobilization of International Union Power parallel to MNC's . . . . .	156
Respondents' Views . . . . .	157
Inhibiting Factors and Influences . . . . .	158
Prospective Assessment . . . . .	164
International Coordination of Information Gathering Activities . . . . .	164
International Consultation and Strategic Planning . . . . .	166
International Solidarity Actions . . . . .	166
Consultative Meetings between Unions and MNC's . . . . .	168
Coordinated International Negotiations between Unions and MNC's about Investment and Production Allocation Policies . . . . .	169
Coordinated International Bargaining . . . . .	170
Related Matters . . . . .	171
Perceived Union Power . . . . .	171

MNC Strategies . . . . .	172
Assessment of Obstacles . . . . .	175
VII. SUMMARY OF FINDINGS, CONCLUSIONS AND IMPLICATIONS . . . . .	179
Direct Impact . . . . .	179
Main Issues . . . . .	179
Job Security . . . . .	179
Impact upon Union Bargaining Power . . . . .	181
Industrial Relations Practices . . . . .	183
Related Matters . . . . .	184
Indirect Impact . . . . .	184
Institutional Action . . . . .	185
National Level . . . . .	185
European Level . . . . .	186
International Level . . . . .	187
The Mobilization of International Union Power parallel to MNC's . . . . .	187
Respondents' Views . . . . .	187
Prospective Assessments . . . . .	189
Related Matters . . . . .	190
Conclusion and Propositions . . . . .	191
Implications for Future Research . . . . .	195
APPENDICES . . . . .	197
Appendix I MNC'S INCLUDED IN THE SAMPLE BROKEN DOWN BY NUMBER OF EMPLOYEES, TURNOVER AND NUMBER OF COUNTRIES IN WHICH THEY HAVE PRODUCTION FACILITIES . . . . .	199
Appendix II INTERVIEW GUIDE . . . . .	200
Appendix III MEAN SCORES OF RESPONSES OF EXECUTIVES OF MNC'S IN THE CHEMICAL, METAL AND FOODPROCESSING INDUSTRIES . . . . .	205
Appendix IV MEAN SCORES OF RESPONSES OF MNC'S IN EUROPEAN AND AMERICAN MNC'S . . . . .	206
BIBLIOGRAPHY . . . . .	207