
Sustaining Urban Networks

The Social Diffusion of Large Technical Systems

Edited by
Olivier Coutard, Richard E. Hanley, and Rae Zimmerman

Routledge
Taylor & Francis Group
LONDON AND NEW YORK

CONTENTS

NOTES ON CONTRIBUTORS		ix
ACKNOWLEDGMENTS		xiv
INTRODUCTION	Network Systems Revisited: The Confounding Nature of Universal Systems Olivier Coutard, Richard E. Hanley, and Rae Zimmerman	1
PART I Networks and the Development of Cities		13
CHAPTER ONE	Gig@city: The Rise of Technological Networks in Daily Life Dominique Lorrain	15
CHAPTER TWO	"Internetting" Downtown San Francisco: Digital Space Meets Urban Place Stephen Graham and Simon Guy	32
CHAPTER THREE	Urban Space and the Development of Networks: A Discussion of the "Splintering Urbanism" Thesis Olivier Coutard	48
PART II Risks, Crises and the Dependence of Cities upon Networks		65
CHAPTER FOUR	Social Implications of Infrastructure Network Interactions Rae Zimmerman	67

CHAPTER FIVE When Networks are Destabilized: User Innovation and the UK Fuel Crisis 86
Simon Marvin and Beth Perry

PART III
Constructing and Deconstructing the Internet 101

CHAPTER SIX Internet: The Social Construction of a "Network Ideology" 103
Patrice Flichy

CHAPTER SEVEN The Diffusion of Information and Communication Technologies in Lower-Income Groups: Cabinas De Internet in Lima, Peru 117
Ana María Fernández-Maldonado

CHAPTER EIGHT Living in a Network Society: The Imperative to Connect 135
Sally Wyatt

PART IV
Networks and Sustainable Access to Water 149

CHAPTER NINE Conflicts and the Rise of Users' Participation in the Buenos Aires Water Supply Concession, 1993–2003 151
Graciela Schneier-Madanes

CHAPTER TEN Reforming the Municipal Water Supply Service in Delhi: Institutional and Organizational Issues 172
Marie Llorente

CHAPTER ELEVEN Not Too Much But Not Too Little: The Sustainability of Urban Water Services in New York, Paris and New Delhi 188
Bernard Barraqué

PART V
Networks as Institutions 203

CHAPTER TWELVE Networks and the Subversion of Choice: An Institutionalist Manifesto 205
Gene I. Rochlin

AFTERWORD After Words
Seymour J. Mandelbaum 231

AUTHOR INDEX 233

SUBJECT INDEX 235