

THE POLITICAL ECONOMY OF MODERN SOUTH AFRICA

ALF STADLER

CROOM HELM
London & Sydney

Contents

	Acknowledgements	vii
1	Revolution, reform and repression in the 1970s and 1980s: the quickening rhythm	1
2	National, regional and international bases of the apartheid state	10
3	The political economy of industrial South Africa	34
4	White power in the twentieth century: from party government to Bonapartist rule	65
5	The logic of labour coercion: influx control and political domination	86
6	Of uncivil government: the administration of urban black South Africa	102
7	Race and the allocation of urban space: segregation and apartheid in the cities	116
8	Apartheid in the countryside: politics and government in the homelands and national states	128
9	Movement and organisation in the politics of the underclasses	141
10	Revolution and reform: the emergent forces	161
	References	185
	Bibliography	190
	Index	194