

YRJÖ JAHNSSON LECTURES

---

Labour Management, Contracts and Capital Markets

A General Equilibrium Approach

JACQUES H. DRÈZE

Basil Blackwell

Contents

---

Preface	ix
Introduction and Preview	1
Human labour and economic theory	1
Labour management	2
Labour contracts and capital markets	4
Economy-wide wage settlements	5
Chapter 1 Labour-managed Market Economies	7
1.1 Introduction	7
Two views of labour management	7
Labour-managed market economies	8
Outline of the chapter	9
1.2 Value added per worker	9
Homogeneous labour and fixed membership	9
Variable membership, identical tastes	12
Variable membership, diverse tastes	15
Heterogeneous labour: sharing valued added	16
Heterogeneous labour: choosing labour inputs	17
Supply and demand for labour	19
1.3 General equilibrium	19
Labour-management equilibria	19
Contrast with competitive equilibria	22
An equivalence property	23
Comments	25

1.4	Information requirements and capital rents	26
1.5	Income distribution	29
1.6	Working conditions	31
	Chapter 2 Stock-market Economies	37
2.1	Introduction to chapters 2-4	37
	Market failures	37
	Uncertainty, states of the environment and insurance values	38
	Asset markets and investment decisions	39
	Income uncertainty and labour contracts	40
	Integrating the theories of finance and of labour contracts	42
	Capitalist firms versus labour-managed firms	44
	Preview	45
2.2	Stockholders equilibria	46
	The physical model	46
	Equilibrium of production and exchange	47
	The Pareto principle	49
	The control principle	51
	Generalizations	54
	Vote trading and side payments	54
	Chapter 3 Stock-market Economies with Labour Contracts	60
3.1	Labour contracts	60
3.2	Equilibria with Pareto-efficient labour contracts	63
	Production, exchange and labour contracts	63
	Existence of equilibria for the Pareto principle	65
	Properties of equilibria for the Pareto principle	66
3.3	Equilibria of production, exchange and labour contracts	68
	Labour demand by firms	68
	Existence of equilibria for the control principle and majority voting by workers	70
	Two extensions	73
3.4	Properties of Pareto-efficient contracts	74
	First-order conditions	74
	Efficient risk-sharing	76
	Relation to majority voting	77

---

Firm-specific risks	78
Market risks, the CAPM and wage indexation	80
Chapter 4 Labour Management versus Labour Contracts under Incomplete Capital Markets	85
4.1 Financing labour-managed firms under incomplete markets	85
Internal financing	85
Bond financing	88
Equity financing	88
4.2 Labour contracts versus equity contracts	89
Labour-management equilibria with equity contracts	89
Labour management and labour contracts	92
Labour contracts versus equity contracts	95
Chapter 5 Some Macroeconomic Aspects, and Conclusions	99
5.1 Provisional conclusions	99
5.2 A static macroeconomic aspect	100
Labour's comparative advantage	100
Second-best heuristics	102
A digression on working time	103
5.3 A dynamic macroeconomic aspect	103
New entrants to the labour market	103
Ex ante efficient downwards wage rigidity	106
Wage discrimination by hiring date	108
Complications	112
Inegalitarian cooperatives	113
5.4 Overall conclusion	114
Appendix 1	116
Appendix 2	122
Appendix 3	131
Appendix 4	140
Appendix 5	142
References	148
Index	154