

Disequilibrium and Macroeconomics

Volker Böhm

Basil Blackwell

Contents

Preface	vii
1 Introduction	1
2 Non-Walrasian Prices and Quantity Rationing	5
2.1 The Basic Model	7
2.2 Rationing Mechanisms	8
2.3 Equilibria with Quantity Rationing	15
2.4 Efficiency of Equilibria with Quantity Rationing	25
2.5 Monopolistic Equilibria with Quantity Rationing	30
2.6 Summary	34
2.7 Bibliographical Notes	36
3 Macroeconomic Models with Quantity Rationing	38
3.1 Aggregate Demand and Aggregate Supply – A First Approach	39
3.2 Prices, Wages and Employment	47
3.3 Comparative Statics	65
3.4 Concluding Remarks	72
4 Beyond the Prototype: Extensions and Generalizations	74
4.1 Inventories	75
4.2 Money, Bonds and Credit	93

5 The Dynamics of Temporary Equilibria with Quantity Rationing	107
5.1 Money, Prices and Wages	108
5.2 Quasi-stationary Equilibria and Perfect Foresight	111
5.3 Employment and Welfare in the Long Run	124
5.4 The Law of Supply and Demand under Quantity Rationing	132
5.5 Quasi-stationary Equilibria and the Law of Supply and Demand	136
5.6 Beyond the Prototype	144
References and Bibliography	151
Index	162