

EDI SEMINAR SERIES

Financial Reform in Socialist Economies

Editors

Christine Kessides
Timothy King
Mario Nuti
Catherine Sokil

The World Bank
Washington, D.C.

---

Contents

Glossary and Acronyms	vii
Conference Program	viii
Financial Reform in Socialist Economies: Workshop Overview	1
Catherine Sokil and Timothy King
1. Monetary and Financial Aspects of Gorbachev's Reform	28
Gregory Grossman
2. Monetary Reforms in Bulgaria	47
Renzo Daviddi
3. Financial Aspects of the Economic Reform in Poland	56
Cezary Józefiak
4. China's Reform of the Financial and Tax Systems	64
Cuilan Wu
5. The Reorganization of the Banking System in Hungary	73
Tamás Bácskai
6. Feasible Financial Innovation under Market Socialism	85
D. M. Nuti
7. Shareholding Schemes in the Yugoslav Economy	106
Milica Uvalić
8. Structural Reform and Financial Reform in China	126
Meizheng Xu
9. The Beginnings of a Capital Market in Hungary	133
László Antal
10. Socialist Stock Company: The Missing Link in Economic Reform	147
Maciej Iwanek and Marcin Święcicki
11. Financial System for Restructuring the Yugoslav Economy	154
Ales Vahčić and Tea Petrin
12. The Role of Small-Scale Industry in Yugoslavia's Economic Development	162
Planinko Kapetanović

13. Economic Reform and Monetary Cooperation in the CMEA 170
Jozef M. van Brabant
14. Alternative Modes of Financial Organization 196
Marcello de Cecco
15. The Basis of China's Banking Reform 205
Ren Junyin
16. Balance of Payments Adjustment and Financial Crisis 214
in Yugoslavia
Mitja Gašpari
- Participants 241