

Economic Nationalism in the Third World

---

Peter J. Burnell

*Lecturer in Politics
University of Warwick*

DISTRIBUTED BY HARVESTER PRESS

Contents

---

Preface	vii
Acknowledgements	x
Introduction	1
1. The Meaning of Economic Nationalism	16
i There is no one agreed definition	16
ii The economic in economic nationalism	20
iii Aims and objectives of economic nationalism	25
Summary	46
2. Causes	53
i Factors in decolonisation	54
ii Provocative factors in the international economic environment	58
iii Permission, support and promotion from outside	65
iv Domestic factors	72
Summary	83
3. Agricultural Self-sufficiency and Industrialisation	87
i Agricultural self-sufficiency	87
ii Industrialisation	100
Summary	108
4. Measures	112
i Money	112
ii Natural resources	116
iii Trade	131
Summary	145
5. Foreign Direct Investment	150
i Introduction	150
ii Ownership	156
iii Localisation	168
iv Regulation	171

v	Concluding remarks	179
	Summary	182
6.	Aid and Self-reliance	188
i	Detractions from aid	190
ii	Positive action by intending recipients	198
	Summary	205
7.	Planning, Integration and Third World Cooperation	209
i	Planning	209
ii	National economic integration	213
iii	Cooperation in the Third World	227
	Summary	240
8.	Autonomy and Self-determination	243
i	Autonomy	243
ii	Economic self-determination	258
	Summary	265
	Bibliography	269
	Index	290