

Edited by

Agnieszka Stępińska

News in Europe, Europe on News

λογος

Table of Contents

Preface	7
-------------------	---

Part I

Foreign News: Theoretical and Methodological Challenges

Jürgen Wilke: Comparing News Flow Studies: What Do We Learn From Earlier Research	13
Paolo Mancini: Comparative Research in Media Studies and Political Sciences. Delays and Explanations	27
Ruud Wouters: The Nature of Foreign News. Conceptual Considerations About Analysing Foreign News Over Time	43
Tomasz R. Szymczyński: The Challenge of the Conceptualizations in Journalism. On Myths and Facts Regarding the Media Coverage of the Europeanization and Globalization Processes	63

Part II

Covering Europe

Jürgen Wilke, Christine Heimprecht: Europe in Europe and Europe in the World A Study in News Geography, News Content and News Presentation	85
Beata Ociepka: Foreign News in the Press. Summary of Research on the Coverage of European Events in Poland and Germany	99
Elizabeth Godo, Abby Goodrum: European Authority in Canadian News	115

Part III

European News Media and Journalists

Suzanne Franks: What Is 'Foreign Reporting'? At Home and Abroad - No Longer 'Here and Not There' but Everywhere	131
Agnieszka Stępińska: The 'Feedback' of Euronews: A Study on an Active International Audience	143

Kevin Rafter: 'Get There and Stay for Two or Three Weeks, or Until the Money Runs Out': the Irish Media's Engagement with Foreign News Reporting 159

Part IV
Covering Politics

Dorota Piontek: Pack Journalism as an Element of the Framing Process 173

Michael Nitz, Alicia Coggins: Like Always, Like Never Before: Norwegian Newspaper Coverage of the 2008 U.S. Presidential Election 183

Gabriele M. Murry: Comparative Views of Mass Opinion and Armed Military Conflict: War on Terror, the US and Germany 197

Part V
Political and Legal Framework of the Media in Europe

Krystyna Doktorowicz: Public Service Broadcasting - an European Idea, a Polish Policy 211

Jędrzej Skrzypczak: The European Audiovisual Media Services Directive: A New Framework for Broadcasting 219

Magdalena Melnyk-Niewiadomska: Media in Contemporary Spain: Consequences of Politicization 225

Contributors 237