

Implementation of Strategic Planning

Peter Lorange

University of Pennsylvania

TECHNISCHE HOCHSCHULE DARMSTADT
Fachbereich 1
Gesamtbibliothek
Betriebswirtschaftslehre
Inventar-Nr. :	34.151
Abstell-Nr. :	A.12.1103
Sachgebiete:	1.2.2
	1.2.6.2

Contents

Preface	vii
section one INTRODUCTION	1
1 The task of implementing strategic planning: an overview and introduction to the book	3
section two CONCEPTUAL AND METHODOLOGICAL IMPLEMENTATIONAL ISSUES	23
2 Strategic planning systems from a system science point of view	25
3 Evaluating your strategic planning system	37
	iii

4	Proposition for a relational conception of strategic planning: adaptation to the past and integration of the future	47
5	Strategic resource allocation procedures	68
6	Effective strategic planning and the role of organization design	91
7	Controlling strategic plans	114
	section three IMPLEMENTATION IN SITUATIONAL SETTINGS	125
8	Managing the quality of strategic thinking	127
9	Introducing a formal strategic planning system in a business firm	142
10	The increased relevance of planning: a case study 1950–1980	162
11	On acceptance of strategic planning systems	171
12	Strategic planning as a tool for adaptation and integration	183
13	Planning as a vehicle for strategic redirection in a matrix structure	194
	section four CONCLUSION	207
14	Where do we go from here: implementation challenges for the 1980's	209
	Indexes	227