OUTLINE TABLE OF CONTENTS

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Contents</th>
<th>Page</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>Preface</td>
<td>xxxiii</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Acknowledgements</td>
<td>xxxvi</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>List of abbreviations</td>
<td>xxxvii</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

Section I The making of the regime
1.1 Accession 3
1.2 The settlement of religion 24
1.3 An economic settlement? 58
1.4 The Scottish problem 90
1.5 The Queen’s marriage and the succession 114
1.6 Enforcing the religious settlement 148
1.7 The beginnings of Puritanism 164
1.8 The crisis of 1568–72 190

Section II Institutional structures
2.1 Crown, court, and counsel 235
2.2 Projecting power 277
2.3 Parliament 308
2.4 Royal finances 337
2.5 The legal system 366
2.6 Local government 393
2.7 Military resources 427

Section III Social and economic structures
3.1 Social structure and social change 445
3.2 Family and household 501
3.3 The domestic economy 530
3.4 Overseas trade and exploration 571
3.5 Cultural life 620
3.6 Poverty and welfare 663
3.7 Crime and disorder 689
3.8 London 726

Section IV Politics and religion, 1572–1588
4.1 The state of the Church 745
4.2 The Catholic challenge 782
4.3 The Puritan challenge 819
OUTLINE TABLE OF CONTENTS

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Section</th>
<th>Title</th>
<th>Page</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>4.4</td>
<td>The radical fringe</td>
<td>874</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>4.5</td>
<td>Foreign policy dilemmas: the Anjou match and the road to war</td>
<td>897</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>4.6</td>
<td>The Irish problem</td>
<td>925</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>4.7</td>
<td>The problem with Mary</td>
<td>957</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>4.8</td>
<td>The Armada crisis</td>
<td>1000</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

Section V Crisis years? 1588–1603

| 5.1     | Fin de siècle: politics in the closing years                         | 1021 |
| 5.2     | The burdens of war                                                  | 1023 |
| 5.3     | Poverty and crime                                                   | 1075 |
| 5.4     | Catholics divided                                                   | 1118 |
| 5.5     | Puritanism contained                                                | 1150 |
| 5.6     | The Irish denouement                                                | 1187 |
| 5.7     | Succession                                                           | 1234 |
| 5.8     | The end of the regime                                               | 1261 |

Bibliography                                             1288
Index                                                   1336
DETAILED LIST OF CONTENTS

SECTION I THE MAKING OF THE REGIME

1.1 Accession

1. The Spanish ambassador on regime change: Count Feria to King Philip II, 14 November 1558 5
2. Sir Nicholas Throckmorton's advice to the Queen before her accession 9
3. Speech by Queen Elizabeth to the delegation of Mary’s councillors, probably 17 November 1558 15
4. An account of the Queen's entry into the City of London on the eve of her coronation, 14 January 1559: Aloisio Schivenoglia reports to Sabino Calandra, castellan of Mantua, 23 January 1559 15
5. Providentialism unrestrained: an oration by John Hales, 1558/9 21

1.2 The settlement of religion

6. Planning a settlement of religion: The device for the alteration of religion 26
7. Perceptions of religious change in early 1559 29
   (i) Aloisio Schivenoglia to Octaviano Vivaldino, Mantuan ambassador with King Philip II of Spain at Brussels, 30 January 1559 on the opening of Parliament 29
   (ii) Matthew Parker to a member of the Privy Council, 1 March 1559 30
   (iii) John Jewel to Peter Martyr, 14 April 1559 31
8. Viscount Montague's speech in the House of Lords against the supremacy bill, possibly 13 March 1559 32
9. The Act of Supremacy, 1559 33
10. The Act of Uniformity, 1559 38
11. Royal Injunctions, 1559 41
12. Enforcement and early reactions 53
   (i) A chronicler's overview 53
   (ii) Aloisio Schivenoglia to the Castellan of Mantua, 10 May 1559 53
   (iii) Iconoclasm in London described by Henry Machyn, 1559 54
13. The status of images contested: an address made by some bishops and divines to Queen Elizabeth, against the use of images, early 1560 54
14. John Jewel's defence of the settlement 55
   (i) The reasons for renouncing Rome 55
   (ii) Jewel answers Catholic charges against Protestants 56
1.3 An economic settlement?

15. Thinking about the economy: an economic reform programme, previously attributed to 1559 60
16. Reform of coinage: proclamation announcing reform of coinage, 27 September 1560 63
17. Difficulties encountered in reforming the coinage: the earl of Huntingdon to Cecil, 29 November 1560 65
18. Divided counsels over monetary policy, 1562 66
19. The Statute of Artificers, 1563 68
20. Import substitution: an act for the avoiding of divers foreign wares made by handicraftsmen beyond the seas, 1563 76
21. Protecting native industries
   (i) An act for the true making of hats and caps, 1566 77
   (ii) An act touching cloth workers and cloths ready wrought to be shipped over the sea, 1566 77
22. Maintaining the navy: Sir William Cecil's speech on fish days, 1563 78
23. The enclosure problem: an act for the maintenance and increase of tillage, 1563 82
24. Moneylending: an act against usury, 1571 84
25. The parliamentary debate over usury, 1571 85

1.4 The scottish problem

26. William Cecil's British vision: A memorial of certain points meet for restoring the realm of Scotland to the ancient weal, 31 August 1559 91
27. The debate over intervention in Scotland, December 1559: the speech used by the Lord Keeper ten days before Christmas Anno 1559 at the Council board concerning an aid required by the Scots for the removing of the French out of Scotland 93
29. Cecil threatens resignation over Scotland: William Cecil to Queen Elizabeth, 20 December 1559 105
30. The Treaty of Berwick, 27 February 1560 105
32. Mary's claim to the English succession: William Maitland of Lethington to William Cecil, 7 October 1561 110
33. Relations between Elizabeth and Mary: instructions given by the Queen to Sir Henry Sidney on embassy to the Queen of the Scots, 15 July 1562 (minute by Cecil) 111

1.5 The queen's marriage and the succession

34. Impressions of Elizabeth's first month: count de Feria to Philip II, 14 December 1558 117
CONTENTS

35. Spanish diplomacy and the Queen’s marriage: count de Feria to Philip II, 29 April 1559 119
36. An assessment of Elizabeth’s suitors in 1559: baron Breuner to Emperor Ferdinand, from London, 6 August 1559 120
37. Hostility to Robert Dudley: Bishop Quadra to the Duchess of Parma, 11 September 1560 123
38. Popular perceptions of Dudley’s candidacy: confession of Arthur Gunter 124
39. The case for a domestic marriage: ‘A Discourse that it was not convenient for the Queen to marry, with the Answer’ 125
40. Queen Elizabeth’s reply to the petition of the House of Commons on her marriage, 10 February 1559 126
   (i) The official version 126
   (ii) William Camden’s version 128
41. Petition of the House of Lords concerning the marriage and the succession, 1 February 1563 128
42. Camden’s muddled account of the marriage question in the 1566 Parliament 131
43. Elizabeth’s reply to a select number of Lords and Commons on her marriage, 5 November 1566 133
44. Elizabeth and Mary Queen of Scots: Sir James Melville’s report of his audience with Elizabeth, 1564. 135
45. Negotiations over the Queen’s marriage to Archduke Charles 139
   (i) Sir William Cecil to Sir Thomas Smith, 3 June 1565 139
   (ii) Summary by Cecil of essential conditions for marriage, 12 August 1565 139
   (iii) Cecil to Sir Thomas Smith, 16 October 1565 140
   (iv) Comparing Leicester and Archduke Charles: memorandum by Cecil, April 1566 141
   (v) Duke of Norfolk to Queen Elizabeth, 15 November 1567 141
46. The Anjou marriage project, 1570: A discourse of the Queen’s marriage with the Duke of Anjou, drawn out by the Lord Keeper 143

1.6 Enforcing the religious settlement

47. An overview by Lord Keeper Bacon at the opening of Parliament, 12 January 1563 150
48. Problems facing the Church: Speaker Williams’ address at the opening of Parliament, 15 January 1563 152
49. Conservatism in the north 153
   (i) John Best, bishop of Carlisle, to Sir William Cecil, 14 January 1562 153
   (ii) John Best, bishop of Carlisle to Sir William Cecil, 1563 154
50. The bishops’ reports on the state of the Church, 1564 155
51. Will of Nicholas Culverwell, haberdasher of London, 1569 158
CONTENTS

52. Local enforcement of the settlement: extracts from the churchwardens’ accounts of St Andrew Hubbard, London 159
53. Dealing with conservatism in the north: the visitation of York diocese, 1567 161

1.7 The beginnings of Puritanism

54. Reform proposals for the 1563 Convocation: Certain articles in substance desired to be granted by the Queen’s Majesty 166
55. Reform proposals in the Lower House of Convocation, 1563 168
   (i) The seven articles 168
   (ii) The six articles 169
56. Resistance to government policy: Gilbert Berkeley, bishop of Bath and Wells to Sir William Cecil, 23 March 1564 169
57. Elizabeth’s hostility to discussion of images: Guzman de Silva, Spanish ambassador to Philip II, 12 March 1565 170
58. The Queen’s insistence on conformity: Elizabeth to Matthew Parker, archbishop of Canterbury, 25 January 1564 170
59. Anxieties over clerical dress: James Pilkington, bishop of Durham to the earl of Leicester, 25 October 1564 172
60. The vestiarian controversy and divisions among the godly: Edmund Grindal, bishop of London to Henry Bullinger, 27 August 1566 174
61. John Stow’s observations on the vestiarian controversy and its aftermath in London, 1566–7 175
62. Parliamentary attacks on the church courts in 1571 176
63. Attempt to reform the Prayer Book in Parliament, 1571 177
64. The Puritan critique: The First Admonition to Parliament, 1571 180
65. Puritan proposals for a reformed ministry: A Second Admonition to Parliament, 1572 183

1.8 The crisis of 1568–72

66. Cecil’s tour d’horizon, 1569: A short memorial of the state of the realm 193
67. The problem posed by Mary
   (i) Lord Scrope and Sir Francis Knollys to Elizabeth, May 1568 203
   (ii) Mary to Elizabeth, July 1568 205
   (iii) Elizabeth to Mary, 21 December 1568 206
68. The duke of Norfolk’s relationship with Mary
   (i) Answer of the earl of Pembroke to interrogatories, 29 September 1569, memorandum by Cecil 207
   (ii) Examination of Sir Nicholas Throckmorton, 10 October 1569 208
69. The duke of Norfolk in a quandary: William Cecil to Sir Henry Norris, 3 October 1569 209
70. The northern rebellion
   (i) The manifesto of the earls of Northumberland and Westmorland 210
CONTENTS

(ii) William Cecil to Sir Henry Norris, ambassador to France, 2 December 1569 210
(iii) Cecil to Norris, 24 December 1569 211
(iv) Wavering loyalties in the north: Sir George Bowes to Earl of Sussex, 17 November 1569 212

71. Religious conservatism of the northern rebels 213
72. Papal bull of 1570 excommunicating Elizabeth 215
73. An act whereby certain offences be made treason, 1571 217
74. Uncovering the Ridolfi Plot 218
   (i) Charles Bailly to Cecil Burghley, 2 May 1571 218
   (ii) Examination of William Barker by Privy Council, 7 November 1571 219

75. The duke of Norfolk’s final confession, 26 February 1572 220
76. Parliamentary demands for action against Mary, Queen of Scots, 1572 222
77. Nicholas St Leger’s speech against the duke of Norfolk, 30 May 1572 224
78. Petition of laity against Mary, probably 26 May 1572 225
79. Draft bill against Mary, May 1572 229

SECTION II INSTITUTIONAL STRUCTURES

2.1 Crown, court, and counsel

80. The role of the crown 240
81. John Aylmer on monarchy, 1559 242
82. Arguments for obedience: Homily against disobedience and willful rebellion, 1570 242
83. Assessments of Elizabeth 245
   (i) The chronicler’s perspective 245
   (ii) The teacher’s view: Roger Ascham on Elizabeth 245
   (iii) John Clapham 246
   (iv) Robert Naunton 248

84. The Privy Councillor’s oath as taken by George Talbot, earl of Shrewsbury, 12 December 1576 249
85. The councillor’s duty: Burghley to Robert Cecil, 13 March 1596 250
86. The challenges of counselling the Queen: Sir Francis Knollys to Dr Thomas Wilson, 9 January 1578 250
87. Relations between councillors: earl of Leicester to Lord Burghley, 27 September 1578 251
88. Cecil’s scheme for an interregnum: ‘A clause to have been inserted in an act meant for the succession, but not passed’, March 1563 253
89. Thomas Wilson on the councillors’ means of maintaining political control 254
90. The work of the secretary: instructions for a principal secretary, observed by Robert Beale for Sir Edward Wotton, 1592 254
CONTENTS

91. The Queen's ministers anatomised 263
   (i) Clapham on Burghley 263
   (ii) Naunton on Robert Dudley, earl of Leicester 265
   (iii) Camden on Robert Dudley, earl of Leicester 266
   (iv) Naunton on Thomas Radcliffe, earl of Sussex 267
   (v) Camden on Sir Christopher Hatton 267
   (vi) Naunton on Lord Hunsdon 268
   (vii) Naunton on Sir Robert Cecil 268
   (viii) Clapham on Sir Walter Raleigh 269

92. Relations between Elizabeth and her councillors and courtiers 270
   (i) Court gossip: Gilbert Talbot to the earl of Shrewsbury, 11 May 1573 270
   (ii) The 'amorous servitude' of the Elizabethan courtier: Sir Christopher Hatton to Queen Elizabeth, 5 June 1573 271
   (iii) Affecting intimacies: Elizabeth to Burghley, 10 May 1591 271

93. The burdens of service 272
   (i) Lord Hunsdon to Lord Burghley, 8 June 1584 272
   (ii) Thomas Bodley to Lord Burghley, 11 July 1595 273
   (iii) Samuel Cox, Hatton's secretary, to Sir Christopher Hatton, 4 October 1584 274

2.2 Projecting power

94. Court ceremonial: account by Paul Hentzner of Brandenburg, 1598 280

95. Court entertainments 282
   (i) A contemporary account of Gorboduc, January 1562 282
   (ii) Tournaments, plays, and banquets: Guzman de Silva, the Spanish ambassador, to Philip II, 12 March 1565 283
   (iii) Court masques: Arthur Throckmorton to Sir Robert Cecil, 11 January 1595 283
   (iv) The accession day tournament described by Lupold von Wedel, 1584 284
   (v) The accession day tournament: Rowland Whyte to Sir Robert Sidney, 22 November 1595 285
   (vi) Wedding masques: Rowland Whyte to Sir Robert Sidney, 14 June 1600 285

96. Royal progresses 286
   (i) Elizabeth's reception at Oxford, 31 August 1566: Richard Stephens, A brief rehearsall of all such things as were done in the University of Oxford during the Queen's Majesty's abode there . . . 286
   (ii) Queen Elizabeth at Kenilworth, 1575: Robert Laneham's letter 287
   (iii) Organising for a progress: Thomas Tooke to John Hubberd, 19 September 1601 289
CONTENTS

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Section</th>
<th>Title</th>
<th>Page</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>97.</td>
<td>Aristocratic pleasure palaces</td>
<td>289</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>(i)</td>
<td>Theobalds described by Count Waldstein, 1600</td>
<td>289</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>(ii)</td>
<td>Holdenby House: Lord Burghley to Sir Christopher Hatton, 10 August 1579</td>
<td>291</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>98.</td>
<td>A prayer for the preservation of the Queen, 1585</td>
<td>292</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>99.</td>
<td>A loyalist ballad, early 1590s</td>
<td>293</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>100.</td>
<td>Catholic views of the regime's tyranny</td>
<td>296</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>(i)</td>
<td>The demonisation of Leicester: Leicester's Commonwealth, 1584</td>
<td>296</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>(ii)</td>
<td>Burghley demonised: 'Burghley's Commonwealth', 1592</td>
<td>300</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>101.</td>
<td>The regime defends itself</td>
<td>302</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>(i)</td>
<td>A declaration of the Queen's proceedings since her reign, February 1570</td>
<td>302</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>(ii)</td>
<td>Burghley defends himself: Minutes of a letter wrote by the Lord Burghley to a nameless friend clearing himself of sundry slanders raised of him</td>
<td>306</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>102.</td>
<td>Sir Thomas Smith on Parliament</td>
<td>311</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>103.</td>
<td>The Speaker's oration at the end of the Parliament of 1593</td>
<td>315</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>104.</td>
<td>Elections to Parliament at Liverpool in 1563</td>
<td>316</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>105.</td>
<td>Conciliar influence on parliamentary elections: Privy Council to Lord Cobham, 18 October 1584</td>
<td>317</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>106.</td>
<td>A contested parliamentary election in Kent: F. Golding to Sir Robert Sidney, 16 September 1601</td>
<td>317</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>107.</td>
<td>Lord keeper's response to Sir Thomas Gargrave on accepting election as Speaker, 1559</td>
<td>318</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>108.</td>
<td>The debate on the subsidy and freedom of speech, 1571</td>
<td>320</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>109.</td>
<td>Peter Wentworth on freedom of speech, 8 February 1576</td>
<td>322</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>110.</td>
<td>Managing parliamentary business: Thomas Norton's advice to Burghley, 1572</td>
<td>326</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>111.</td>
<td>Parliamentary lobbying: the London armourers' lobby in action, 1581</td>
<td>327</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>112.</td>
<td>Parliamentary lobbying: the brewers’ lobby in action, 1593</td>
<td>329</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

2.3 Parliament

| 113.    | Thomas Wilson on the public finances, 1600                           | 341  |
| 114.    | The Queen's credit, 1568–9                                          | 342  |
| (i)     | Sir Thomas Gresham to Sir William Cecil, 29 August 1568              | 342  |
| (ii)    | Gresham to Cecil, 14 August 1569                                     | 343  |
| 115.    | The subsidy act, 1559                                                | 343  |
| 116.    | Sir Walter Mildmay's request for supply, 10 February 1576            | 348  |
| 117.    | Speech of Lord Keeper Bacon at the dissolution of Parliament, on the grant of the subsidy, 1576 | 352  |
118. Abuses in the collection of the subsidy: Privy Council to commissioners for subsidy in Cheshire, 8 July 1582 354
119. Abuses in the collection of the customs: Richard Clough to Sir Thomas Gresham, 31 December 1561 356
120. Privy seal loans 357
   (i) Letter of privy seal to Roger Columbell, 1589 357
   (ii) Problems in assessment: Richard Bagot to the earl of Shrewsbury, 16 April 1589 358
121. Abuses of purveyance 358
   (i) Sussex justices of the peace to Burghley, 27 June 1573 358
   (ii) Mayor and jurats of Rye to Sir James Croft, controller of her Majesty’s household, 19 May 1581 359
   (iii) Abuses in assessment, 1587 360
122. Attacks on purveyance and abuses in Exchequer administration in Parliament, 1589 360
123. The salt monopoly 362
   (i) Patent for the manufacture of white salt, 20 February 1586 362
   (ii) Protest against the salt monopoly, April 1586 364

2.5 The legal system

124. Richard Hooker on the law 369
125. Speaker Onslow on the law, addressing the Queen at dissolution of Parliament, 2 January 1567 371
126. The glories of the common law under threat? William Lambarde’s charge to jurors at Maidstone quarter sessions, 28 September 1591 372
127. John Stow on the Westminster law courts 374
128. William Harrison on common and customary law 376
129. Sir Thomas Smith on Chancery 377
130. The court of Star Chamber 377
   (i) Richard Robinson’s account 377
   (ii) Sir Thomas Smith’s account 378
131. Star Chamber in action 379
   (i) Attorney general vs. Fisher, 12 May 1596 379
   (ii) Attorney general vs. Booth and others, 24 November 1596 379
   (iii) Attorney general, on behalf of the City of London, vs. Baynam and others, 6 July 1600 380
   (iv) Littleton and Parker vs. Lord Dudley, 6 February 1596 380
   (v) Attorney general vs. Jones and Thomas, 22 April 1597 381
   (vi) Attorney general vs. King, 21 May 1596 381
132. Keeping it out of Star Chamber: Rowland Whyte to Sir Robert Sidney, 26 October 1597 382
133. Sir Thomas Smith on wardship 383
134. William Lambarde on the court of requests 384
135. Sir Thomas Smith on local jurisdictions 385
136. Attempts to influence the course of justice 385
   (i) William Fleetwood to Burghley, 18 July 1583 385
   (ii) Sir Henry Sidney to Mr Seckford, master of the requests, 6 June 1582 386
   (iii) William Herle to Sir Christopher Hatton, 20 May 1583 386
   (iv) Sir Christopher Hatton to Lord Chancellor Bromley, 27 July 1582 386
137. Thomas Wilson on the lawyers 387
138. William Harrison on the passion for litigation and the profits of lawyers 388
139. The need for law reform: Francis Alford to Lord Burghley, 9 November 1585 389
140. Charles Calthrope on the opinions of the common lawyers on the status of copyhold 390
141. The judges' opinion on arbitrary imprisonment, 9 June 1591 391

2.6 Local government

142. Sir Thomas Smith on the justices of the peace 397
143. Local government at work: William Lambarde's charge to jury at Maidstone quarter sessions, 24 April 1582 399
144. Report on Yorkshire justices of the peace by Archbishop Sandys to Burghley, 27 September 1587 400
145. Debates over reformation of manners revealing concerns about justices of the peace, 1601 402
146. Weaknesses of juries and constables: William Lambarde's charge to jurors at Maidstone quarter sessions, 17 April 1599 403
147. William Harrison on the corruption of juries 405
148. Sir Thomas Smith on constables 405
149. Building an ordered commonwealth
   (i) Orders by the justices of Bury St Edmunds, 1578 406
   (ii) The Swallowfield articles, 1596 408
150. An ordered commonwealth? Presentments at Liverpool portmoots, 20 October 1567 411
151. Urban oligarchy in formation at Liverpool, 1580 412
152. Resistance to urban oligarchy at Totnes: Privy Council to Sir George Carey, Sergeant Glanville, Sergeant Hele, and William Carew, 14 May 1598 413
153. Resistance to urban oligarchy at Warwick: account of election proceedings, 1571 414
154. Urban government at work: extracts from the town accounts of Cambridge, 1563–1589 416
CONTENTS

156. Abuses of government in Wales: Richard Price of Brecknock to Burghley, 31 January 1576 423
157. Sir Henry Sidney’s advice on the government of Wales: Sidney to the Privy Council, 12 November 1576 424

2.7 Military resources

158. Local arms and armour 429
159. The state of the armed forces, 1600 430
160. Raising forces: Privy Council to Lord Talbot, 23 December 1559 431
161. Army abuses on the Scottish campaign of 1560
   (i) Duke of Norfolk to Secretary Cecil, 8 February 1560 432
   (ii) Duke of Norfolk to the Queen, 2 June 1560 433
162. Abuses in levying men and money in Wales: minute from the Queen to the president and Council in the Marches of Wales, 20 May 1571 433
163. Indiscipline at Liverpool among troops for Ireland, 1573 434
164. Financial constraints on military spending: Edward Waterhouse to Sir Henry Sidney, 26 June 1577 435
165. Mutiny among Irish recruits, 1580 436
166. Duties of lords lieutenants, 1585 436
167. London trained bands, 1572 437
168. Trained bands: Heads of instructions for the leaders to instruct the trained soldiers in, 1586 438
169. Orders for militia by Burghley as lord lieutenant of Hertfordshire, 1590 438

SECTION III SOCIAL AND ECONOMIC STRUCTURES

3.1 Social structure and social change

170. The Ealing census, 1599 453
171. Sources for demography: the bishops’ surveys of 1563 and 1603 relating to deanery of Grantham
   (i) 1563 Numbers of households 464
   (ii) 1603 Numbers of communicants 465
172. Sir Thomas Smith on the social structure 466
173. Thomas Wilson on the social elite, 1600 469
174. Thomas Wilson on the commons, 1600 471
175. William Harrison’s observations upon social change, 1587 472
176. Probate inventories from Oxfordshire
   (i) Edward Kempsale of Bourton 475
   (ii) Thomas Gyll of Williamscot 476
177. The fortunes of the aristocracy 477
178. The fortunes of the gentry: Sir William Holles (d. 1591) 479
179. The fortunes of the gentry: will of Denzel Holles (d. 1590) 482
<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Section</th>
<th>Title</th>
<th>Page</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>180.</td>
<td>The fortunes of the gentry: John Holles, later earl of Clare</td>
<td>484</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>181.</td>
<td>A Dutch merchant's view of the English: Emanuel van Meteren, 1599</td>
<td>488</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>182.</td>
<td>The conflict between robe and sword</td>
<td>490</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>183.</td>
<td>Changing social mores: Gervase Markham on servingmen, the</td>
<td>490</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td>decay of hospitality, and new patterns of consumption, 1598</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>184.</td>
<td>Memoirs of a Derbyshire yeoman: Arthur Mower of Barley, c.1610</td>
<td>494</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>185.</td>
<td>The ideal husbandman: Thomas Tusser's 'Good husbandly lessons</td>
<td>496</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td>worthy to be followed of such as will thrive', 1580</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>3.2</td>
<td>Family and household</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>186.</td>
<td>Family ideals: 'A homily of the state of matrimony', 1563</td>
<td>504</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>187.</td>
<td>Marriage negotiations on behalf of Anne Bacon, 1593–4</td>
<td>510</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td>(i) Nathaniel Bacon to Lady Jane Townshend, 23</td>
<td>510</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td>(ii) Nathaniel Bacon to Lady Jane Townshend, late February 1593</td>
<td>511</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td>(iii) Nathaniel Bacon to Edward Coke, solicitor general,</td>
<td>512</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td>27 October 1593</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td>(iv) Nathaniel Bacon to Lady Jane Townshend, 8 July 1594</td>
<td>512</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td>(v) Nathaniel Bacon to Lady Jane Townshend, 20 August 1594</td>
<td>513</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td>(vi) Award in a dispute between Nathaniel Bacon and John Townshend</td>
<td>515</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td>concerning the marriage settlement of Anne Bacon, 3 November 1594</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>188.</td>
<td>Domestic conflict: Griffin Jones, skinner of London vs. his wife</td>
<td>516</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td>Marian Jones and others in the court of requests, 1594</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td>(i) Bill of complaint of Griffin Jones</td>
<td>516</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td>(ii) Answer of defendants</td>
<td>517</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>189.</td>
<td>Family disputes: the Willoughbies at war</td>
<td>521</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td>(i) Lady Elizabeth Willoughby to Sir Francis Willoughby,</td>
<td>521</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td>end of 1585</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td>(ii) Sir Francis Willoughby to Lady Elizabeth Willoughby,</td>
<td>522</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td>29 December 1585</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>190.</td>
<td>Matrimonial cases in the church courts</td>
<td>523</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td>(i) A case of adultery, 1566</td>
<td>523</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td>(ii) A runaway marriage, 1565</td>
<td>525</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td>(iii) Spousals: a disputed case, 1566</td>
<td>526</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td>(iv) Marital breakdown: alleged impotence</td>
<td>527</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td>(v) Sexual reputation, 1561</td>
<td>528</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>3.3</td>
<td>The domestic economy</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>191.</td>
<td>Farming regions in Suffolk</td>
<td>535</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>192.</td>
<td>Farming in Elizabethan Pembrokeshire</td>
<td>535</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>193.</td>
<td>Proposals for improvement of wastes: Alderman William Box to Burghley,</td>
<td>537</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td>c.1576</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>
CONTENTS

194. A religious conservative's view of enclosures: Michael Sherbrooke, c.1591 539
195. An enclosure riot prosecuted in Star Chamber: Danvers vs. Long and others, 23 June 1596 540
196. The parliamentary debate over enclosures, 1597 541
197. Anti-enclosure legislation, 1598 542
198. Parliamentary debate over enclosure policy, 1601 544
199. Enclosure by agreement at Haselbech, 1596 545
200. The variety of tenures in Suffolk, c.1600 547
201. Land tenure in Kent 547
202. Market towns in Pembrokeshire 548
203. William Harrison on abuses in marketing 549
204. Regulation of corn exports: licences to export grain, 1579, 1581 550
205. Labour regulation: an apprenticeship indenture, 1565 551
206. Regulating labour at Warwick, 1581 552
207. Guild regulation: the ordinances of the Warwick butchers, 30 December 1570 552
208. Competition between guilds: parliamentary debate on an act for redress of certain abuses used in painting, concerning a dispute between the painters and the plasterers of London, 1601 555
209. Supposed abuses in the clothing industry: John Leake's treatise, February 1577 556
210. Preserving fuel supplies: an act touching iron mills near unto the City of London and the river of Thames, 1581 559
211. Richard Carew on tin mining in Cornwall 560
212. Settlement of strangers at Norwich, 1564 562
213. Advantages derived from aliens at Norwich, c.1575 563
214. Complaints of Londoners against alien merchants and craftsmen, 1571 564
215. Debate in Parliament over aliens retailing, 1593 565

3.4 Overseas trade and exploration

216. Memorandum by Cecil on the export trade in cloth and wool, 1564 574
217. Explaining the decay of Hull, 1575 576
218. Notes by Burghley on overseas trade, fishing, and shipping, c.1581 577
219. Arguments for and against incorporating the Barbary merchants, c.1582 579
220. Challenges to the chartered companies: petition from the Merchant Adventurers to the Privy Council to suppress interlopers, c.1584 581
221. The operation of the licensing system for cloth exports: disputes between the earl of Cumberland and the Merchant Adventurers 582
   (i) Cumberland to Lord Keeper Thomas Egerton, 5 March 1602 582
   (ii) Christopher Hoddesdon, governor of the Merchant Adventurers, to Lord Keeper Thomas Egerton, 6 March 1602 583
222. John Dee: exploration and empire, 1577–83 585

xviii
224. Hakluyt on the achievements of the Elizabethans 589
225. The slave trade: Hawkins’ first voyage, 1562–3 591
226. The reception of Sir Francis Drake on completing his circumnavigation of the world, 1580 591
227. Hakluyt’s advice on the search for a north-east passage to Cathay, 1580 592
228. The search for the north-west passage: John Davis’ account of his three voyages, 1585–7 599
229. Motives for colonisation: Sir Humphrey Gilbert’s expedition to Newfoundland, 1583; Edward Hayes, ‘A report of the voyage... attempted in the year... 1583 by Sir Humphrey Gilbert, knight...’ 601
230. Hopes for the colony in Virginia: Ralph Lane to Richard Hakluyt, 3 September 1585 603
231. Abandonment of the first Virginian settlement, June 1586 604
232. Another attempt to colonise Virginia, 1587 605
233. Thomas Hariot on the Virginia colonists, 1587 608
234. Sir Walter Raleigh on the advantages of Guiana over the West Indies, 1595 609
235. The establishment of the East India Company, 1599 611
236. Appointment of commissioners for repression of piracy, 8 November 1565 613
237. Piracy, 1573 615
238. The capture of the great carrack, 1592 616

3.5 Cultural life

239. Education for the middling sort: the schooling of Simon Forman 625
240. Education of the social elite: the education and upbringing of Edward Lord Herbert 628
241. The grammar school curriculum: statutes and orders for the government of the free grammar school of Leicester, c.1576 629
242. An educational programme for the social elite: Sir Philip Sidney to Edward Denny, Whitsunday 1580 634
243. The uses of a classical education: Gabriel Harvey’s observations on the uses of Livy 637
244. Gabriel Harvey on scientific practitioners in London, c.1590/1 638
245. John Stow on Gresham’s College and its precursors 639
246. Roger Ascham on the perils of foreign travel, 1570 640
247. Continental travel: Sir Henry Sidney to his son, Robert Sidney, 25 March 1578 642
248. Advice to a son, purportedly Lord Burghley writing for Robert Cecil, c.1588 643
CONTENTS

249. The universities 645
   (i) Access 645
   (ii) College life: William Soone to George Bruin, from Cologne, eve of Pentecost, 1575 646

250. Resistance to Whitgift's new statutes at Cambridge: articles by heads of houses against the proctors and others, 1572 647

251. A provincial bookseller's stock 648

252. Regulating leisure: proclamation on archery and unlawful games, March 1572 649

253. Regulating leisure: minutes of meeting of Stratford council, 8 December 1592 650

254. Civic entertainment at Liverpool, 1577 650

255. Entertainment in London, 1559–63 651

256. Civic ritual: account of the inauguration of the lord mayor of London, 1575 653

257. The commercialisation of leisure in London: Thomas Platter, 1599 654

258. The controversy over the theatre: Edmund Grindal, bishop of London to Sir William Cecil, 22 February 1564 657

259. Theatrical entertainments for the Queen: Dr John Still, vice-chancellor and the heads of Cambridge colleges to Lord Burghley, chancellor of the university, 4 December 1592 657

260. The City of London, the Privy Council, and the theatre 658
   (i) Petition of players to Privy Council, 1584 658
   (ii) Answer of the City authorities to the players 658
   (iii) Lord mayor, Sir John Spencer to Burghley, 3 November 1594 661

3.6 Poverty and welfare

261. Surveying the poor in Norwich, 1570 666

262. Norwich orders for the poor, 1571 668

263. Debate in Parliament over poor law legislation, 13 April 1571 675

264. Act for the relief of the poor, 1572 675

265. An act for the setting of the poor on work and for the avoidance of idleness, 1576 680

266. Implementation of poor relief measures by Wiltshire justices of the peace, 1578–9 683

267. Implementation of rating at Liverpool, 1580 684

268. Challenges to the poor relief system in London: John Howes’ Dialogue, 1587 684

269. Problems of the poor in Hertfordshire: Sir Anthony Thorold to Burghley, 6 November 1589 687

3.7 Crime and disorder

270. The system of criminal justice 693

271. Broadening the scope of the capital sanction 696
(i) An act to take away the benefit of clergy from certain felonious offenders, 1566
(ii) An act that no person robbing any house in the day time, although no person be therein, shall be admitted to have the benefit of his clergy, 1598

272. The theatre of punishment
   (i) Sir Thomas Smith on penal sanctions 697
   (ii) Punishments in London, 1559–63 698
   (iii) Treatment of moral offenders at Southampton, 1559–70 699

273. Law enforcement: justices of the peace at work, from William Lambarde’s notebook, 1580–8 700
274. Law enforcement: fighting crime in London
   (i) Action against vagrancy: Recorder William Fleetwood to Lord Burghley, 14 January 1582 703
   (ii) Recorder Fleetwood to Lord Burghley, 2 May 1582 705
   (iii) Disorders by apprentices: Recorder Fleetwood to Lord Burghley, 18 June 1584 705
   (iv) Organised crime: Recorder Fleetwood to Lord Burghley, 7 June 1585 706
   (v) A threatened anti-alien riot: Recorder Fleetwood to Lord Burghley, 6 September 1586 707

275. Treatment of vagrants at Warwick, 1581 707
276. Regulation of alehouses in Norfolk, 1602
   (i) A petition against alehouses 708
   (ii) Official action: Lord Chief Justice Popham to Nathaniel Bacon, 4 February 1602 709
   (iii) A petition for alehouses 710

277. Disorderly justices of the peace: Lord Abergavenny to Lord Burghley, 8 April 1577 710
278. Prostitution: the confession of a brothel keeper before the governors of the London Bridewell, 1577 711
279. Witchcraft: the legal framework
   (i) An act against conjurations, enchantments, and witchcrafts, 1563 713
   (ii) An act against fond and fantastical prophesies, 1563 714

280. Witchcraft explained by Reginald Scot 715
281. Cunning folk and witchcraft
   (i) George Gifford’s Dialogue concerning witches, 1593 716
   (ii) Cunning folk before the church courts 717

282. Depositions in witchcraft cases
   (i) A cunning man: the examination of John Walsh of Dorset touching witchcraft and sorcery, 1566 717
CONTENTS

(ii) Charity refused: the confession of Elizabeth Frances, late of Hatfield in Essex, 1566 720
(iii) Witchcraft and childcare: the case of Ursley Kemp in Essex, 1582 720

283. The case of Ferdinando, earl of Derby, 1594 723
284. A case of sorcery, 1578 724
285. Coining and magic: Edward Phaer to Lord Treasurer Burghley, undated 725

3.8 London

286. A foreigner’s impression of London: Frederick, duke of Württemberg in 1592 728
287. Westminster described by John Norden, 1592 729
288. The Royal Exchange, 1567 730
289. Attempts to limit the city’s growth: proclamation prohibiting new building and sub-dividing of houses, 7 July 1580 730
290. London’s social structure: ‘The apology of the City of London’, appended to Stow’s Survey 732
291. Feeding the city: enquiry of the Privy Council and reply of the lord mayor concerning the food supply of the City of London, 23 March 1574 735
292. London as a social centre for the gentry: Lady Margaret Hoby visits the capital, 17 October 1600 to 28 February 1601 738
293. London and the circulation of news to the provinces: Edward Bacon to Nathaniel Bacon, 26 October 1587 741

SECTION IV POLITICS AND RELIGION, 1572–1588

4.1 The state of the church

294. Whitgift’s attitude towards impropriations: John Whitgift to Richard Cox, bishop of Ely, 3 December 1575 749
295. Lay attitudes towards church wealth: Lord North to Richard Cox, bishop of Ely, 20 November 1575 750
296. Lay exploitation of the Church: Lord Keeper John Puckering to the Queen, c.1595 751
297. Resistance to lay exploitation by Matthew Hutton on proposed elevation to archbishopric of York 752
   (i) Matthew Hutton, bishop of Durham, to Sir Robert Cecil and Sir John Wolley, 29 December 1594 752
   (ii) Cecil and Wolley to Hutton, January 1595 753
   (iii) Hutton to Cecil and Wolley, 25 January 1595 753
298. Regulating the Church: Bishop Richard Barnes’ injunctions for the diocese of Durham, 1577 754
CONTENTS

299. Governing a diocese: Richard Barnes, bishop of Durham to Burghley, 11 February 1578 760
300. The limitations of a bishop’s power: John Aylmer, bishop of London to the Queen, April/May 1582 762
301. Ecclesiastical government at work: presentments at the archiepiscopal visitation of Gloucester diocese, 1576 764
302. Puritan surveys of the ministry: the Warwickshire clergy in 1586 768
303. Measures to create a learned ministry in the diocese of Lincoln, 1585: certain orders for the increase of learning in the unlearned sort of ministers 772
304. Official measures to improve the ministry, 1588: orders agreed upon by the archbishops and bishops, etc. at the Parliament 773
305. William Harrison on the state of the churches 773
306. The state of religion in Lancashire, 1590 774
307. George Gifford on popular religion, 1582 779

4.2 The catholic challenge

308. William Allen’s directions for the programme of studies at Douai 787
309. The English College at Rome: Robert Persons to Edmund Campion from Rome, 28 November 1578 790
310. Campion’s ‘Brag’, 1580 791
311. Progress of the mission
  (i) Robert Persons to Pope Gregory XIII, 14 June 1581 792
  (ii) Persons to Alfonso Agazzari, rector of the English College at Rome, August 1581 793
  (iii) Robert Persons to Agazzari, 1 March 1582 797
312. The government’s attempt to counter Catholic propaganda: A particular declaration or testimony of the undutiful and traitorous affection borne against her Majesty by Edmund Campion, Jesuit, and other condemned priests, 1582 798
313. Tightening up the anti-Catholic legislation: an act to retain the Queen’s Majesty’s subjects in their due obedience, 1581 799
314. Proclamation declaring Jesuits traitors, 1 April 1582 800
315. Popery detected on the Queen’s progress, 1578: Richard Topcliffe to the earl of Shrewsbury, 30 August 1578 801
316. Seminary priests in London: William Fleetwood, recorder of London to Burghley, 2 May 1582 802
317. The challenge of recusancy in the midlands: William Overton, bishop of Coventry and Lichfield to Privy Council, 20 May 1582 803
318. Catholic loyalism in the mid-1580s: a supplication to the Queen, March 1585 806
319. The regime defends itself: Burghley’s Execution of justice in England 809
320. William Allen answers Burghley: A true, sincere and modest defence of English Catholics 813

xxiii
CONTENTS

4.3 The Puritan challenge

321. Edwin Sandys, bishop of London on the Puritan challenge in the capital: Sandys to Henry Bullinger, 15 August 1573 823
322. London Puritanism in the early 1570s: Bishop Edwin Sandys to Burghley and Leicester, 5 August 1573 825
323. The beleaguered hierarchy: Archbishop Parker to Lord Treasurer Burghley, 18 February 1575 827
324. Puritanism in the provinces: Edmund Scambler, bishop of Peterborough to Burghley, 12 April 1573 828
325. Religious divisions in Norwich: Sir Francis Wyndham to Sir Nathaniel Bacon, 2 December 1576 829
326. London Puritanism: John Aylmer, bishop of London to Sir James Harvey, lord mayor of London, 1 March 1582 830
327. Prophesyings explained by William Harrison 831
328. The archbishop of Canterbury defends prophesying: Edmund Grindal to the Queen, 20 December 1576 832
329. Elizabeth’s order for the suppression of prophesyings, 7 May 1577 841
331. Godly government: orders of the Dedham classis 843
332. A shadow Presbyterian Church: orders for the Dedham classis 844
333. A shadow Presbyterian Church: the Dedham classis in action 845
334. Whitgift’s subscription campaign: the three articles of 1583 850
335. Puritan responses to the subscription campaign: Edmund Chapman to Thomas Cartwright, 4 November 1584 851
336. Whitgift’s campaign encounters resistance: Whitgift to Privy Council, 1583 852
337. Resistance to Whitgift’s campaign: Whitgift to Burghley, 1583 854
338. Burghley’s opposition to Whitgift’s campaign: Burghley to Archbishop Whitgift, 1 July 1584 855
339. Whitgift’s riposte to Burghley: Whitgift to Burghley, 3 July 1584 857
340. Whitgift sustains the pressure: Whitgift to Burghley, 15 July 1584 860
341. Elizabeth’s response to the Puritan pressure: speech at close of Parliament, 29 March 1585 861
343. Sir Christopher Hatton’s speech in Parliament on the bill and book, 4 March 1587 869

4.4 The radical fringe

344. The anabaptist challenge in London, 1575 876
345. Religious deviants in Gloucester diocese: proceedings of the ecclesiastical commission, 1574–5 877
346. Proclamation ordering the prosecution of the Family of Love, 3 October 1580 878
4.5 Foreign policy dilemmas: the anjou match and the road to war

351. Queen Elizabeth’s speech at close of Parliament, 15 March 1576 899
352. Sussex on the Anjou match: the earl of Sussex to Queen Elizabeth, 28 August 1578 901
353. Walsingham on the marriage negotiations: Sir Francis Walsingham to Sir Christopher Hatton, 9 October 1578 905
354. Burghley’s memorandum on the Anjou match, 13 April 1579 905
355. Burghley’s memorandum of the Privy Council’s proceedings, 7–8 October 1579 908
356. Elizabeth’s relationship with Anjou: Jean Simier to Queen Elizabeth, 28 August 1579 910
357. Sir Philip Sidney’s opposition to the Anjou match: A letter written by Sir Philip Sidney to Queen Elizabeth touching her marriage with Monsieur, probably November/December 1579 910
358. John Stubbs’ Gaping gulf, 1579 915
359. Preaching against the Anjou match: Sir Francis Walsingham to the lord mayor of London, 25 September 1581 916
360. Lord Henry Howard’s Answer to Stubbs, 1580 917
361. Ongoing negotiations in 1581 918
   (i) Queen Elizabeth to Anjou, 21 July 1581 918
   (ii) Leicester to Walsingham, 30 July 1581 918
   (iii) Memorandum by Walsingham, 13 August 1581 919
   (iv) Walsingham to Queen Elizabeth, 16 August 1581 920
   (v) Queen Elizabeth to Anjou, 10 September 1583 921
CONTENTS

362. The road to war: Burghley’s report of the Privy Council’s discussion on assistance for the Dutch, 10 October 1584 922

4.6 The Irish problem

363. Elizabeth’s instructions to the earl of Sussex, draft by Cecil, May 1560 929
364. Sir Henry Sidney’s reflections on the governorship of Ireland, 1565 931
365. Problems with the presidencies, 1570: Sir Edward Fitton to Burghley, 15 April 1570 934
366. Edmund Campion on the Gaelic population, 1570 935
367. Rowland White’s ‘The disorders of the Irishry’, 1571 937
368. Sir Humphrey Gilbert’s regime in Munster, 1569 941
369. Options for the governance of Ireland: Edward Waterhouse to Sir Henry Sidney, 17 December 1573 944
370. Sir Thomas Smith on his scheme for a plantation in the Ards peninsula, 1572 945
371. Sir Henry Sidney’s advice to Lord Grey on the government of Ireland, 17 September 1580 949
372. Plantation scheme for Munster, 1586: an abstract of the articles for repeopling and inhabiting the province of Munster in Ireland, 21 June 1586 953

4.7 The problem with Mary

373. The Bond of Association, 1584 960
374. An act for provision to be made for the surety of the Queen’s Majesty’s most royal person and the continuance of the realm in peace, 1585 962
375. Trial of Mary, Queen of Scots, October 1586 964
376. Petition of Lords and Commons for the execution of Mary, 12 November 1586 975
377. The Queen’s answer to petition of Lords and Commons, 12 November 1586 977
378. The Queen’s speech on Mary to Parliament, 24 November 1586 980
379. Deniability: Elizabeth and Sir Amias Paulet
   (i) Elizabeth to Sir Amias Paulet, c. August 1586 982
   (ii) Walsingham and Davison to Sir Amias Paulet, 1 February 1587 982
   (iii) Sir Amias Paulet and Sir Dru Drury to Walsingham, 2 February 1587 983
380. The execution of Mary, Queen of Scots, 8 February 1587 984
381. The Privy Council attempts to explain itself: draft by Burghley, 2 February 1587 986
382. Secretary Davison’s account of the fate of the warrant sent to Walsingham, 20 February 1587 987
383. The Scottish fall-out
   (i) The earl of Leicester to King James VI, 31 December 1586 994
   (ii) King James VI to Queen Elizabeth, 26 January 1587 995
CONTENTS

(iii) Queen Elizabeth to King James VI, c. 1 February 1587 997
(iv) Queen Elizabeth to King James VI, 14 February 1587 998
(v) Robert Carey's explanation, sent with Queen Elizabeth's apology of 14 February 1587 998

4.8 The Armada crisis

384. The Armada campaign: Emanuel van Meteren's account 1002
385. Queen Elizabeth's speech to the army at Tilbury, 9 August 1588 1007
386. Problems of supply: Henry White to Walsingham, 8 August 1588 1008
387. The aftermath 1009
   (i) Lord Charles Howard to Walsingham, 8 August 1588 1009
   (ii) Lord Charles Howard to Burghley, 10 August 1588 1010
   (iii) Squabbling among the English commanders: Matthew Starke's deposition, 11 August 1588 1010
   (iv) Problems of pay: Sir John Hawkins to Burghley, 28 August 1588 1011

388. Mobilising the aristocracy: Queen Elizabeth to sundry noblemen, 2 June 1588 1012
389. Aspects of militia performance
   (i) Sir Walter Raleigh to Burghley on the west country levies, 20 December 1587 1012
   (ii) Privy Council to deputy lieutenants of Norfolk, 7 June 1588 1013
   (iii) Privy Council to lords lieutenants of divers shires, 25 August 1588 1014
   (iv) The impact on local communities: Stratford-on-Avon constables' account, 1588 1015

390. Aspects of naval provision
   (i) Costs of the navy in 1588 1015
   (ii) Local provision of shipping: minute of Privy Council letter to the ports, 1 April 1588 1016
   (iii) Paying for locally supplied ships: Howard to the marquis of Winchester, lord lieutenant of Dorset, and Dorset justices of the peace, 15 August 1588 1017
   (iv) Disputed obligations in East Anglia 1018
   (v) Disputed obligations in the west country 1019

SECTION V CRISIS YEARS? 1588–1603

5.1 Fin De Siècle: Politics in the closing years

391. The French ambassador on the Queen, 1597 1028
392. John Clapham on the character of the earl of Essex 1030
393. The struggle for local power
   (i) The earl of Derby to the earl of Essex, 19 December 1593 1031
   (ii) The earl of Essex to the earl of Derby, 17 January 1594 1031
CONTENTS

394. The quest for patronage: Francis Bacon
   (i) Francis Bacon to Burghley, c. 1591 1032
   (ii) Anthony Standen to Francis Bacon, February 1594 1033
   (iii) Francis Bacon to Fulke Greville, c. May 1595 1034
   (iv) Francis Bacon to Burghley, 7 June 1595 1034
   (v) The earl of Essex to Lord Keeper Puckering, 1595 1035

395. The quest for patronage: Sir Robert Sidney 1036
   (i) Rowland Whyte to Sir Robert Sidney, 7 March 1597 1036
   (ii) Rowland Whyte to Sir Robert Sidney, 13 April 1597 1036
   (iii) Rowland Whyte to Sir Robert Sidney, 12 September 1599 1037

396. Francis Bacon's advice to Essex, 4 October 1596 1038

397. Divisions over military strategy and foreign policy 1040
   (i) Sir Thomas Lake to Sir Robert Sidney, 22 August 1595 1040
   (ii) The earl of Essex to the Privy Council, 13 June 1596 1040
   (iii) Thomas Lake to Sir Robert Sidney, 4 November 1596 1044
   (iv) Rowland Whyte to Sir Robert Sidney, 20 May 1597 1045
   (v) Camden describes the debate in the Privy Council on peace overtures to Spain, 1598 1045

398. Essex's deteriorating relationship with the Queen 1046
   (i) The earl of Essex to the Queen, 15 July 1598 1046
   (ii) Thomas Egerton to the earl of Essex, 18 July 1598 1046
   (iii) Essex unrepentant: the earl of Essex to Sir Thomas Egerton, 18 October 1598 1048

399. Essex justifies himself: An apology of the earl of Essex, 1598 1049

400. The Irish campaign 1055
   (i) The earl of Essex to the Privy Council from Dublin, 17 July 1599 1055
   (ii) The Queen to the earl of Essex in Ireland, 14 September 1599 1056
   (iii) Essex contemplates treason in Ireland, 1599: confession of Sir Christopher Blount, February 1601 1059

401. Sensitivities over historical analogies: Sir Edward Coke on John Hayward's First part of the life and reign of King Henry the IIII, July 1600 1059

402. The trial of the earl of Essex, 5 June 1600 1059

403. Raleigh's animosity to Essex: Sir Walter Raleigh to Sir Robert Cecil, summer 1600 1066

404. Essex's relationship with James VI: the earl of Essex to King James VI, 25 December 1600 1067

405. Essex's rebellion, 8 February 1601 1069

406. Political libels 1073
   (i) An anti-Cecil libel: Proud and ambitious wretch that feedest on naught but faction 1073
   (ii) A pro-Essex libel: He that in Belgia fought for England's Queen 1073
   (iii) Chamberlain Chamberlain, one of her Grace's kin 1074

xxviii
5.2 The burdens of war

407. The cost of warfare: estimates made in 1603 1078
   (i) The cost of suppressing Tyrone's rebellion, 1603 1078
   (ii) What the wars cost her late Majesty and what subsidies have been given and lands sold 1079
408. The debate in Parliament over the subsidy, 1593 1079
409. Elizabeth thanks Parliament for the subsidies, 1593 1092
410. Tax evasion 1093
   (i) Bishop William Overton of Coventry and Lichfield, to Privy Council, 4 May 1591 1093
   (ii) Privy Council to Northamptonshire subsidy commissioners, 21 December 1601 1094
411. Mobilising for war: Elizabeth to the earl of Shrewsbury, 25 June 1600 1095
413. Deficiencies of the Hertfordshire trained bands: Sir Henry Cocke to Lord Burghley, 18 June 1594 1098
414. Enumerating the military burdens: certificate by lord lieutenant and deputy lieutenants of Devon to Privy Council regarding charges imposed on Devon, March to November 1596 1099
415. Resistance to military burdens in Liverpool, 1601 1099
416. Abuses in impressments: attorney general vs. Gresham and others, 4 February 1596 1100
417. Abuses of the army in Ireland: Lord Burghley to Sir Robert Cecil, 2 October 1597 1100
418. The problem of the Dunkirk pirates, 1601 1101
419. Fiscal expedients: the debate over monopolies, 1601 1102
420. Withdrawal of selected monopolies, 28 November 1601 1116

5.3 Poverty and crime

421. The problem of disbanded soldiers: the mayor and jurats of Rye to Sir Francis Walsingham, 5 February 1590 1121
422. A speech in Parliament calling for measures to relieve maimed soldiers, ?28 March 1593 1122
423. Plague relief measures in Oxford, 1593–5 1123
424. Crime and disorder in the localities: Edward Hext to Lord Burghley, reporting on Somerset, 25 September 1596 1124
425. A Norwich libel, 1596 1128
426. Cases of seditious words 1128
427. Proposals for the reform of poor relief in London, c.1596 1129
428. Enforcing the book of orders in response to dearth: Sir Richard Fynes to Sir Robert Cecil, 18 October 1595 1134
429. Responses to dearth: Privy Council to the sheriff and custos rotulorum of Northamptonshire, 25 May 1595 1135
CONTENTS

430. Mobilising the local governors: lord keeper's charge to justices of the peace in Star Chamber, 1 July 1596 1135
431. Mobilising the local governors: Thomas Walmesley and Edward Fenner, justices of assize, to the justices of the peace for Devonshire, 26 October 1596 1137
432. Mobilising the preachers in response to dearth: Archbishop Whitgift to the bishops, 10 August 1596 1138
433. Punishment of engrossers by Star Chamber 1139
434. Measures against cottagers, 1589 1139
435. The poor laws overhauled: an act for the relief of the poor, 1598 1140
436. Dealing with vagrancy: an act for the punishment of rogues, vagabonds, and sturdy beggars, 1598 1143
437. Implementation of the poor laws at Liverpool, 12 June 1598 1145
438. Administration of the poor law by the West Riding justices of the peace, 1598 1146
439. Setting the poor to work in Oxford, 1600–1 1148
440. Tightening up on petty delinquency: an act to avoid and prevent divers misdemeanours in lewd and idle persons, 1601 1148

5.4 Catholics divided

441. Certificate of recusancy in Warwickshire, 1593 1152
442. Recusancy in the diocese of Worcester: Thomas Bilson, bishop of Worcester to Sir Robert Cecil, 17 July 1596 1154
443. Richard Topcliffe's advice to Lord Burghley on the treatment of recusants, c.1590 1155
444. Proclamation against Jesuits and seminary priests, 18 October 1591 1157
445. An act against popish recusants, 1593 1160
446. John Gerard describes priest hunting, 1591 1162
447. Results of a search for priests, 1592 1163
448. Robert Southwell's appeal to the Queen against persecution, 1591 1164
449. Examination of John Gerard, 1594: the 'Bloody Question' 1165
450. John Gerard on the torture of Catholic priests 1165
452. A scheme for the restoration of Catholicism: Robert Persons' Memorial, 1595 1169
   (i) 'The 'council of reformation' 1169
   (ii) A remodelled Parliament 1171
453. Catholic networks in Spain: a report by John Whitfield, a spy for the English government, 2 December 1593 1173
454. The origins of the Wisbech stirs. Christopher Bagshaw's A true relation of the faction begun at Wisbech, 1601 1174
455. Sir Henry Neville to Sir Robert Cecil on Catholic divisions, 27 June 1599 1176
456. John Mush to Dr Bagshaw on the archpriest controversy, 1597 1177

xxx
CONTENTS

457. The secular priests’ conditions for accepting the archpriest, April or May 1599 1178
458. Articles of inquiry into the quarrels, prepared by Bishop Bancroft of London, 1601 1179
459. Catholic loyalism: Dr William Gifford to his sister, 17 December 1601 1182
460. Catholic loyalism: Dr Humphrey Ely to Sir Robert Cecil, 30 August 1602 1183
461. Form of subscription to Bishop Richard Bancroft by the secular priests 1185

5.5 Puritanism contained

462. Press censorship: Star Chamber ordinance, 23 June 1586 1191
463. The Marprelate controversy: An epistle to the terrible priests of the Convocation House, October 1588 1193
464. The anti-Martinist response: John Lyly’s Pop with a hatchet, 1589 1199
465. Richard Bancroft’s anti-Puritan satire 1201
466. The government’s case against the Puritans: brief for use in Star Chamber proceedings, 1593 1202
467. The William Hacket affair, 1591, reported by John Stow 1205
468. The trial of John Udall, 24 July 1590 1207
469. John Penry’s address to Queen Elizabeth, 1593 1211
470. Separatism: deposition of Daniel Bucke, 9 March 1593 1212
471. Debate in Parliament over legislation to deal with separatists, 1593 1214
472. An act to retain the Queen’s subjects in obedience, 1593 1216
473. Controversies over the church courts described by William Camden 1218
474. Robert Cawdrey’s case, 1591 1219
475. Debate in Parliament on ecclesiastical jurisdiction, 1593 1220
476. James Morice’s case: James Morice to Lord Burghley, 1 March 1593 1224
477. Richard Hooker’s Anglican apologetic 1225
   (i) The limitations of Scripture as a guide to Church government 1225
   (ii) The principles of ecclesiastical government 1226
478. Defining orthodoxy: the Lambeth articles, 1595 1230
479. Theological controversy in Cambridge: vice-chancellor and heads of Cambridge colleges to Lord Burghley, 8 March 1596 1231
480. The theological avant-garde: Rowland Whyte to Sir Robert Sydney, 3 April 1600 1231
481. The debate over Sabbath observance, 1601 1232

5.6 The Irish denouement

482. Sir William Fitzwilliam’s administration in Munster: Sir Walter Raleigh to Sir Robert Cecil, July 1592 1236
483. Ireland and the Spanish threat: Sir Walter Raleigh to Sir Robert Cecil, 10 May 1593 1237
484. Sir John Harington visits the earl of Tyrone, April 1599 1238
485. O’Neill’s relations with Spain, 1596 1239

xxxı
CONTENTS

486. Tyrone's peace terms: articles intended to be stood upon by Tyrone, November 1599 1241
487. Mountjoy's methods of warfare 1242
488. Defeat of Tyrone and the Spaniards at Kinsale, 1601: Robert Cecil to Ralph Winwood, 2 January 1602 1243
489. Edmund Spenser on Ireland 1245
   (i) The strategy for subjugation 1245
   (ii) Restructuring Irish society 1251
   (iii) The civilising programme 1252
490. Francis Bacon's advice on Ireland, 1602 1256

5.7 Succession

491. Parliament attempts to discuss the succession, 1593 1263
492. Relations between Queen Elizabeth and King James VI of Scotland 1264
   (i) James VI to Elizabeth, 13 April 1594 1264
   (ii) Elizabeth to James VI, 18 May 1594 1266
493. Robert Persons' Conference on the succession, 1594
   (i) The dedication to the earl of Essex 1267
   (ii) The contested succession 1267
   (iii) The case for elective monarchy 1268
   (iv) Arguments against James VI 1270
494. Peter Wentworth replying to Persons on the succession, 1596 1271
495. Thomas Wilson on the succession, 1600 1273

5.8 The end of the regime

496. James VI forges new alliances: James VI to Robert Cecil, c. March 1601 1277
497. Scottish diplomacy: James VI to the earl of Mar and Mr Edward Bruce, ambassadors to Queen Elizabeth, 8 April 1601 1278
498. Court divisions
   (i) Lord Henry Howard to Edward Bruce, around April 1602 1280
   (ii) Lord Henry Howard to earl of Mar, 4 June 1602 1281
   (iii) Lord Henry Howard to the earl of Mar, September 1602 1281
499. The death of the Queen
   (i) William Camden's account 1282
   (ii) Robert Carey's memoir 1284
   (iii) John Manningham's account of the Queen's last illness, 23 March 1603 1285
   (iv) A Catholic account: Elizabeth Southwell on the Queen's last days 1285

xxxii