

Cultural Transfers, Encounters and Connections in the Global 18th Century

ed. by Matthias Middell

Leipziger Universitätsverlag 2014

Table of contents

Matthias Middell The Search for a New Place of the 18th Century in Global History Narratives	7
---	---

Part 1

18th Century People Thinking Global Connections and Encounters

Michel Espagne The Universal- und Kulturgeschichte at Göttingen from Schlözer to Heeren	43
---	----

Pascale Rabault-F Feuerhahn The Complicated Entry of India into 18th Century Western Historiography: The German Case	61
---	----

Carmen Bernand Hispanic America and Universal History. Degeneration, Stagnation, or Singularity?	85
--	----

Guido Abbattista At the Roots of the "Great Divergence": Europe and China in an 18th Century Debate	113
--	-----

Ulrich Johannes Schneider Encyclopedias	163
---	-----

Part 2

Empires Reacting to Global Connections and Encounters

Ricarda Vulpius The Emergence of an Imperial Identity in the Russian Empire	185
---	-----

Martina Winkler Russia, Europe, and the Pacific Ocean: A Global Story?	211
Nora Lafi The Eighteenth Century in the Arab Provinces of the Ottoman Empire: Perspectives for a Global History	231
Michael Mann Revolutions, State-Formation and the Reorganisation of the Mughal Empire	261
Salvatore Ciriaco Trade, International Relations and the Production of Luxury Goods in Japan Towards the End of the Edo Era	287
Index of Names	311
Index of Places	317
List of Authors	323