

Dialogues in and around Multicultural Schools

Edited by Wolfgang Herrlitz and Robert Maier

Max Niemeyer Verlag
Tübingen 2005

Table of Contents

Robert Maier The relevance of dialogue analysis in the study of multicultural schools	1
Claudio Baraldi, Forms of communication in multicultural classrooms: A way of exploring dialogue..	13
Willibrord de Graaf The dynamics of identity in multicultural schools.....	25
Rik Pinxten Dialogues and multiculturalism: Power and intercultural competencies.....	37
Iris Andriessen and Karen Phalet Integration: The road to success in school? A study among minority youth in the Netherlands.....	49
Lawrence N. Berlin What else are students learning? A critical dialogue analysis of a multi-cultural classroom	65
Anna Ciliberti and Laurie Anderson Metacommunication in classroom interaction.....	85
Feng-Bing and Shi-Xu The practice of relation-building by ethnic minority children: Investigation into how Chinese children in Northern Ireland deal with ethnic difference.....	101
José Antonio Flores Farfán Towards an intercultural dialogue in and around the school in Mexico: Problems, reflections and new perspectives	119
Ingrid Gogolin No penalty, but a ...? – About monolingual teachers’ dialogues in multilingual classrooms	133
N. Ivanova, E. Konevá, M. Lobas and I. Mnatsakanyan Adaptation of Caucasian children to multicultural Russian schools. An example from the Yaroslavl region.....	139

José A. Sanchez Medina and Virginia Martinez Lozano Cooperation and conflict management in the playground. A study of Dutch and Andalusian play behavior	153
Karola Pitsch Construction of knowledge in bilingual German-French history lessons: Interactive emergence of “common ground”	169
Rosa Pugliese “Constructing the other”: Discursive processes in academic and social labelling.....	187
Karl Rýdl Theory and practice of intercultural and multicultural education in the Czech Republic.....	207
Agnès van Zanten Political models and local practice: The production of ethnicity in the schools of the Parisian periphery	223
Edda Weigand Dialogue and teaching in multicultural settings.....	235
Ed Elbers, Maaike Hajer, Marina Jonkers and Joanneke Prenger Instructive dialogues: Participation in dyadic interactions in multicultural classrooms	249
Mariëtte de Haan and Ed Elbers Collaboration patterns in a multi-ethnic classroom in the Netherlands: Differences in the reconstruction of institutional norms and ethnicity	265
Trees Pels Disengagement and teacher-student interactions in two Dutch multi-ethnic schools	283
Wolfgang Herrlitz Complex patterns in classroom discourse	299
List of Contributors	325