

Elke Löffler

THE MODERNIZATION OF THE
PUBLIC SECTOR IN AN INTERNATIONAL COMPARATIVE PERSPECTIVE

– Implementation Strategies in Germany,
Great Britain and the United States –

FORSCHUNGSINSTITUT FÜR ÖFFENTLICHE VERWALTUNG BEI DER HOCHSCHULE FÜR VERWALTUNGSWISSENSCHAFTEN SPEYER

1997

Contents

1.	Introduction .....	1
2.	Analytical Framework, Research Question and Methodology of the Study .....	3
2.1	A Pluaralist View of the New Public Management .....	3
2.2	Comparative New Public Management: The State of the Art .....	10
2.2.1	Theoretical Approaches .....	10
2.2.2	Reserach Methods .....	11
2.2.3	Themes .....	15
2.2.3.1	Two Schools .....	15
2.2.3.2	Variables and Hypotheses .....	16
2.3	Research Question and Purpose of the Study .....	26
2.4	Methodology of the Study .....	29
3.	Quality Awards as a Data Base of Statistical Work .....	36
3.1	Methodological Issues .....	36
3.1.1	Representativity of Data .....	36
3.1.2	Reliability and Validity of Data .....	44
3.1.3	Comparative Problems .....	46
3.2	Selection of Countries .....	48
4.	An Environmental Contingency Model of Administrative Modernization Strategies .....	50
4.1	Description of the Basic Model .....	50
4.2	Contextual Macro-Variables .....	56
4.3	Country-specific Patterns of Structural Variables .....	66

4.3.1	The Anglo-Saxon Hypothesis .....	66
4.3.2	The 'Laggard'-Hypothesis .....	75
4.3.3	The North-American Exceptionalism Hypothesis .....	88
4.4	Modernization Strategies .....	89
5.	Empirical Observations of the Relationship between Contextual Macro-Variables and Administrative Modernization .....	91
5.1	The Role of Contextual Factors .....	91
5.2	Different National Priorities of Implementing Administrative Modernization .....	93
5.2.1	Policy and Strategy .....	93
5.2.2	Leadership .....	97
5.2.3	Personnel Management .....	101
5.2.4	Resource Management .....	105
5.2.5	Use of Information Technology .....	112
5.2.6	Organizational Culture .....	115
5.2.7	Customer Focus .....	117
5.2.8	Performance Management .....	120
5.2.9	Process Management .....	124
5.3.	Quantitative and Qualitative Country Profiles of Administrative Modernization .....	126
6.	Conclusions .....	133
7.	Literature .....	135
8.	Appendix .....	163