

REGIONS AND CITIES IN THE GLOBAL WORLD

Essays in Honour of György Enyedi

Edited by
Gyula Horváth

Pécs, Centre for Regional Studies
2000

CONTENTS

Preface

- Gyula Horváth / 11*
- 1 Question marks of European history
Ferenc Glatz / 17
 - 2 Regional unevenness and geographical convergence in Europe.
Concepts, models and data
Mats Lundmark, Anders Malmberg, Bo Malmberg / 30
 - 3 Regional and local economic development policy: the role of administration and political entrepreneurs
Robert J. Bennett / 58
 - 4 Technopoles and regional development
Georges Benko / 82
 - 5 The globalization of the economy and the effect of EU policy:
the case of Austria
Elisabeth Lichtenberger / 115
 - 6 Regions in upheaval. Conceptual framework and empirical findings of the regional transformation research
Heinz Fassmann / 126
 - 7 Patterns of post-socialist transformation in the rural areas
of Central Europe
Marie-Claude Maurel / 141
 - 8 The Polish urban system: stability and change.
Experience of the 1990s
Piotr Korcelli / 159
 - 9 Less-favoured areas and regional development in Romania
Ioan Ianoş / 176
 - 10 Recent trends in Russian regional policy and use of EU
countries experience
Sergey S. Artobolevskiy / 192
 - 11 Spatial transformations and economic restructuring in post-socialist Hungary
Janet Henshall Momsen / 202
 - 12 The changing effects of geo-structural factors in a peripheral area
Shaul Krakover / 220