

Prof. Dr. Winfried Schmähl (Ed.)

The Future of Basic and Supplementary Pension Schemes in the European Community – 1992 and beyond

Nomos Verlagsgesellschaft
Baden-Baden

Contents

Contributors	9
Welcoming Address
Peter Gommers	13
Introduction and summary
Stefan Böhm and Winfried Schmähl	15

Part I: Introductory Overviews and Comparisons

On the Future Development of Retirement in Europe Especially of Supplementary Pension Schemes - An Introductory Overview - Winfried Schmähl	31
A Comparison of the Private and Public Sector Supplementary Systems in the Countries of the European Community Pierre-Guillaume d'Herbais	71
Occupational Pensions as a Part of the Social Security System - Information and Research Deficits - A Comment - Gernold Frank	91

Part II: National Features and Developments

Supplementary Pension Schemes within the Overall System of Provision for Old-Age in the Federal Republic of Germany Werner Tegtmeier	99
The Influence of the German Pension Reform Act 1992 on Occupational Pension Schemes Rolf Birk	111
The Development of State Pensions in the United Kingdom Anthony B. Atkinson	117
Experiences from Swiss Obligatory Occupational Old-Age Insurance Helmut Schneider	135

The Dutch Perspective

Jan B.M. Pierik	151
------------------------------	-----

The French Supplementary Pension Schemes and the EC - A Comment -

Jean Picot	161
-------------------------	-----

Part III: Taxation and Protability of Pension Claims

Taxation as Influencing Factor for the Development of Supplementary Pension Schemes

Günter Becher	165
----------------------------	-----

Theses on the Tax Treatment of Employee Benefit Plans

Klaus-Dirk Henke	177
-------------------------------	-----

The Portability of Occupational Pensions within Europe

John A. Jolliffe	189
-------------------------------	-----

A Comment on Portability from the Point of View of a Multinational Company

Helmuth Maier	223
----------------------------	-----

Protecting One's Pension Rights when Changing or Losing One's Job

Peter J. Bezemer	227
-------------------------------	-----

Part IV: General Discussion and Future Outlooks

Introduction to the General Discussion

David Callund	237
----------------------------	-----

Comment to the General Discussion

Boy-Jürgen Andresen	241
----------------------------------	-----

Concluding Remarks

Peter Gommers	245
----------------------------	-----

Supplementary Pension Schemes in the Process of European Integration

- Consequences and Future Perspectives -

Winfried Schmähl	249
-------------------------------	-----

Index	263
-------------	-----