Contents

Preface vii

The Text of The Adventures of Tom Sawyer 1
   A Note on the Text 171
   Textual Variants 173

Backgrounds and Contexts 181

Biographical Backgrounds 183
   Mark Twain • [Autobiography] 183
   Mark Twain • Letter to Will Bowen, 6 February 1870 191
   The Cave at Hannibal 193

Nineteenth-Century Education 197
   Mark Twain • Miss Clapp's School 197
   Eli M. Rapp • The Old-Time School-Discipline 200

Nineteenth-Century Medicine 201
   John Draper • Dissection of the Dead 201
   [The Case against Dissection] 204
   [The Page That Becky Tore?] 208
   K. Patrick Ober • Fire in a Liquid Form 209

Social and Regional Contexts 213
   E. Anthony Rotundo • Boy Culture 213
   Robert Jackson • [Mark Twain's Missouri] 221

Literary Contexts 225
   Mark Twain • The Story of the Bad Little Boy Who Didn't Come to Grief 225
   Mark Twain • The Story of the Good Little Boy Who Did Not Prosper 228
   Stephen Percy [Joseph Cundall] • From Robin Hood and His Merry Foresters 231

Composing the Book 239
   Mark Twain • Boy's Manuscript 239
   Mark Twain and William Dean Howells • Correspondence on The Adventures of Tom Sawyer 253
   Bernard DeVoto • [Revisions Inspired by Howells] 260 Criticism

[William Dean Howells] • [Review] 263
Hamlin L. Hill • The Composition and the Structure of Tom Sawyer 265
Judith Fetterley • The Sanctioned Rebel 267
Alan Gribben • Boy Books, Bad Boy Books, and The Adventures of Tom Sawyer 279
Glenn Hendler • Masculinity and the Logic of Sympathy in The Adventures of Tom Sawyer 290
Carter Revard • Why Mark Twain Murdered Injun Joe—and Will Never Be Indicted 306
Susan R. Gannon • “200 Rattling Pictures”: True
   Williams and the Imagetext of the First American Edition of The Adventures of Tom Sawyer 332

Mark Twain: A Chronology 379
Selected Bibliography 381