| Preface | ix |
| Notes on the Contributors | xi |
| Introductory Note: Joint Production Luigi L. Pasinetti | xii |
| 1 Joint production as a general scheme | xii |
| 2 Difficulty of treating fixed capital as a 'stock' and possibility of treating it as a 'flow' | xii |
| 3 A general scheme of flows | xiv |
| 4 Origins of the present work | xv |
| 5 Acknowledgements | xvii |
| 1 Sraffa's Model for the Joint Production of Commodities by Means of Commodities Carlo Felice Manara | 1 |
| 1 Aim of this essay | 1 |
| 2 Notation | 2 |
| 3 Conditions of viability of the price system | 4 |
| 4 A further condition for the viability of the price system | 7 |
| 5 A case of non-existence of the 'standard system' | 9 |
| 6 The distinction between basic and non-basic commodities | 11 |
| 2 The Notion of Vertical Integration in Economic Analysis Luigi L. Pasinetti | 16 |
| 1 Production of commodities by means of commodities | 17 |
| 2 Fixed capital goods with a simplifying assumption | 18 |
| 3 An 'industry' | 19 |
| 4 A 'vertically integrated sector' | 19 |
| 5 Vertical integration in the theory of value and income distribution | 21 |
| 6 A particular unit of measurement for capital goods | 24 |
| 7 Vertically integrated sectors for investment goods expressed in physical units of vertically integrated productive capacity | 25 |
| 8 Prices of investment goods expressed in units of vertically integrated productive capacity | 26 |
| 9 Vertically integrated sectors of higher order | 27 |
| 10 Higher-order vertical integration and reduction of prices to a sum of weighted quantities of labour | 29 |

| | | |
|----------|---|-----------|
| 11 | A 'dual' exercise | 31 |
| 12 | Production with fixed capital goods in general | 34 |
| 13 | Generalisations and restrictions | 35 |
| 14 | Technical progress | 38 |
| 15 | The particular case of capital goods produced by labour alone | 39 |
| 16 | New analytical possibilities for dynamic analysis | 42 |
| 3 | Basics, Non-Basics and Joint Production Ian Steedman | 44 |
| 1 | Introduction | 44 |
| 2 | Pasinetti's direct and indirect capital matrix | 45 |
| 3 | Basics, non-basics and the H matrix | 45 |
| 4 | Prices and the rate of profit | 47 |
| 5 | Conclusion | 48 |
| 4 | A Note on Basics, Non-Basics and Joint Production Luigi L. Pasinetti | 51 |
| 1 | The definitions of Manara and Steedman | 51 |
| 2 | A third definition | 52 |
| 3 | Comparisons with the case of single production | 53 |
| 5 | Prices, Rate of Profit and Life of Machines in Sraffa's Fixed-Capital Model Paolo Varri | 55 |
| 1 | Introduction | 55 |
| 2 | The problem of machines in traditional economic theory | 56 |
| 3 | Multisector schemes | 57 |
| 4 | Fixed capital in linear multisector schemes | 58 |
| 5 | Fixed capital and joint production | 61 |
| 6 | The general system of prices | 62 |
| 7 | A simplified model | 63 |
| 8 | Solutions of the system with one productive activity using machines | 68 |
| 9 | Solutions of the system with two productive activities using machines | 71 |
| 10 | Solutions of the system with three or more productive activities with machines | 76 |
| 11 | Some economic implications of the preceding analysis | 79 |
| 12 | The case of negative prices in Sraffa's scheme | 81 |
| 13 | Life of machines and rate of profit: the 'reswitching' of activities | 83 |
| 14 | Two particular solutions for the system of prices: the 'standard system' and the 'labour values' | 83 |
| 15 | Extensions and concluding remarks | 84 |

| | |
|--|-----|
| 6 Fixed Capital in Sraffa's Theoretical Scheme | |
| Salvatore Baldone | 88 |
| 1 Introduction | 88 |
| 2 Some remarks on the problem of fixed capital | 88 |
| 3 Fixed capital and joint production: the price system | 91 |
| 4 Positivity of the maximum wage rate | 97 |
| 5 Existence and positivity of the maximum rate of profit | 98 |
| 6 Remarks about the wage-profit relationship in the case of production with fixed capital | 101 |
| 7 Conditions for the positivity of prices of old machines | 102 |
| 8 Distribution of income and economic life of the machine | 106 |
| 9 A different machine for every productive sector | 107 |
| 10 Further generalisations: joint use of different types of machines and mechanisation of the industries producing durable instruments | 113 |
| 11 Monotonicity of the wage-profit frontier | 115 |
| 12 The standard system and the standard commodity | 119 |
| 13 Remarks on the asymmetry of prices and multipliers | 122 |
| 14 The problem of the reduction of prices to dated quantities of labour in the case of production with fixed capital | 124 |
| 15 Concluding remarks on the problem of depreciation | 128 |
| | |
| 7 Fixed Capital as a Joint Product and the Analysis of Accumulation with Different Forms of Technical Progress | |
| Bertram Schefold | 138 |
| 1 Introduction | 138 |
| Part I | 140 |
| 2 Circulating capital and joint-production systems | 140 |
| Part II | 145 |
| 3 Machines | 145 |
| 4 Integrated systems and finished goods | 150 |
| 5 Prices of intermediate goods (old machines) | 156 |
| 6 Reduction to dated quantities of labour, the 'centre', and switches of technique | 161 |
| 7 Roundabout processes | 168 |
| 8 Truncation theorems | 171 |
| 9 Remarks on the truncation theorems, the choice of techniques and duality | 179 |
| 10 Reconsidering some assumptions | 188 |

| | |
|--|-----|
| Part III | 190 |
| 11 Simple forms of technical progress: saving of labour, mechanisation and saving of raw material | 190 |
| 12 Other forms of technical progress and Marx's temporary retreat to Ricardo | 202 |
| 13 Profitability and technical progress | 208 |
| 8 Rent, Income Distribution, and Orders of Efficiency and Rentability Alberto Quadrio-Curzio | 218 |
| 1 The present essay | 218 |
| 2 The system of prices and the distribution of income | 220 |
| 3 The price–wage–profit sub-system | 221 |
| 4 The rents sub-system | 222 |
| 5 Four problems | 223 |
| 6 The order of efficiency | 224 |
| 7 The order of rentability | 227 |
| 8 Induced changes in income distribution | 230 |
| 9 Autonomous changes in income distribution | 232 |
| 10 Concluding remarks | 238 |
