

BRITISH INDUSTRY AND ECONOMIC POLICY

G. C. Allen

Emeritus Professor of Political Economy, University of London

M

Contents

Preface	ix
1 Introduction	1
2 Structural Changes in the 1920s	16
3 Industrial Organisation in the West Midlands, 1860–1927	20
4 Labour Mobility and Unemployment	33
5 Economic Thought and Contemporary Economic Policy	45
6 State Intervention in Industry	62
7 The Reorganisation of Contracting Industries	74
8 Economic Planning and Private Enterprise	87
9 The Efficiency of British Industry	103
10 Industrial Prospects in the Early 1950s	115
11 Economic Progress, Retrospect and Prospect	127
12 Restrictive Practices in the Copper-Mining Industry	144
13 Policy Towards Competition and Monopoly	155
14 Britain's Economic Performance in the 1960s	171
15 A Critical Appraisal of Galbraith's Thinking	179
16 Economic Advice for Lloyd George	196
Notes and References	208
Index	215