

Le-515T
112

Promoting Adult Learning

Technische Universität Darmstadt

Inv. Nr. 19664
12005
Institut für Berufspädagogik

Bibliothek für Berufspädagogik
TU Darmstadt

ORGANISATION FOR ECONOMIC CO-OPERATION AND DEVELOPMENT

Table of Contents

Executive Summary	9
Introduction	15
The issues at stake	15
Methodology and country participation	16
Structure of the report	18
Notes	18
Bibliography	18
Chapter 1. Participation in Adult Learning: the Figures and the Problems	21
1. Patterns of participation	22
2. A new participation indicator	25
3. Sources of inequality in adult learning	27
4. Barriers to adult learning	28
5. Conclusion	30
Notes	31
Bibliography	31
Chapter 2. Increasing and Promoting the Benefits of Adult Learning	33
1. Towards more transparent returns	34
2. Sending a clear signal	39
3. Information and guidance for potential learners	44
4. Conclusion	52
Notes	53
Bibliography	53
Chapter 3. Financing Adult Learning	55
1. Improving incentives at lower levels of government	56
2. Financing schemes targeting firms and adults	58
3. Conclusion	71
Notes	71
Bibliography	72

Chapter 4. Improving Delivery and Quality Control	75
1. Meeting the delivery challenge	76
2. Flexibility: easing time arrangements and distance learning.....	82
3. Strengthening workplace training	85
4. Improving quality control, programme assessment and evaluation.....	96
5. Conclusion	103
Notes	104
Bibliography	105
Chapter 5. Ensuring Policy Co-ordination and Coherence	109
1. Co-ordination in national policy	110
2. Policy delivery	115
3. Conclusion	118
Notes	119
Bibliography	119
Annex A. The Adjusted Adult Learning Participation Rate (APR): Definition and Computation of a New Indicator	121
Annex B. Key Country Approaches to Adult Learning	123
Annex C. Glossary	141
Annex D. National Coordinators and Review Team Members	143

List of boxes

1.1. Sources of under-investment in training	28
2.1. Adult learning pays: some evidence	35
2.2. Promoting greater transparency of training investments in firms.	37
2.3. Combining classroom and work experience in Germany	38
2.4. The recognition process in Denmark, Finland and Norway	43
2.5. The Credit Bank System in Korea	44
2.6. Identifying skills needs in the United Kingdom and Germany.....	45
2.7. Information and guidance through the Internet in Finland	47
2.8. Individual counselling in the Netherlands	48
2.9. Information and guidance in One-Stop Centers in the United States.....	51
3.1. The National Reporting System (NRS) in the United States	57
3.2. The European Social Fund (ESF)	59
3.3. SME training consortia in Korea	63
3.4. Individual Learning Accounts: eight pilot projects in the Netherlands.....	65
3.5. Training Vouchers in Austria	67
3.6. Individual allowances for study support in selected countries	68
4.1. Intergenerational learning in the United States and the Netherlands	77
4.2. Tackling supply shortages for the indigenous community in Mexico.....	79
4.3. Community Halls (Plazas Comunitarias) in Mexico	80
4.4. Folk high schools and learning houses.	81
4.5. Post-secondary education institutions: community colleges and others	82