

3/28

Industrial Structure and Policy in Less Developed Countries

C. H. Kirkpatrick, N. Lee and F. I. Nixon

University of Manchester

London

GEORGE ALLEN & UNWIN

Boston

Sydney

Contents

List of Abbreviations	page	xiv
Preface		xv
1 INTRODUCTION		1
N. Lee
1.1 Industry and development		1
1.2 Classification of industrial activities		2
1.3 Availability and reliability of data		4
1.4 Industrial characteristics of LDCs		5
1.5 Structure of the book		10
Further reading		10
Notes		11
2 INDUSTRIAL STRUCTURE, INTERNATIONAL TRADE AND DEVELOPMENT		12
C. H. Kirkpatrick and F. I. Nixon
2.1 Introduction		12
2.2 Industrial structure in LDCs		12
2.3 Trade structure and industrialisation		18
2.4 Patterns of structural change and industrialisation		25
2.5 Conclusions: past experience and future prospects		39
Further reading		42
Notes		43
3 BUSINESS CONCENTRATION IN LDCs		46
N. Lee
3.1 Introduction		46
3.2 Entrepreneurship and business enterprise		46
3.3 Market structure—performance analysis		61
3.4 Market structure—performance studies		65
3.5 Conclusions		82
Further reading		84
Notes		84
4 BUSINESS BEHAVIOUR IN THE PRIVATE SECTOR		86
F. I. Nixon
4.1 Introduction		86
4.2 The transnational corporation: definition		87

4.3	The economic characteristics of TNCs	87
4.4	Why do firms engage in international production?	90
4.5	Direct foreign investment in the LDCs	93
4.6	Transnational corporations and industrial structure	98
4.7	TNCs and linkage creation	102
4.8	TNCs and the transfer of technology	104
4.9	Employment creation by TNCs	116
4.10	Transnational investment and the balance of payments	117
4.11	TNCs and the export of manufactured goods	119
4.12	The TNC and transfer pricing	122
4.13	The profitability of TNCs in LDCs	124
4.14	TNCs from LDCs	126
4.15	The TNC: conclusions	128
4.16	The indigenous enterprise: entrepreneurship and management	129
4.17	The development of small-scale enterprises	139
4.18	Finance for industrial development	142
4.19	Transnational corporations, domestic enterprises and the role of the state in LDCs	145
	Further reading	147
	Notes	147
5	BUSINESS BEHAVIOUR IN THE PUBLIC SECTOR	150
	C. H. Kirkpatrick
5.1	Introduction	150
5.2	The public enterprise sector in LDCs	150
5.3	Reasons for the establishment and growth of the public enterprise sector	156
5.4	Sources of public enterprise finance	164
5.5	The evaluation of public enterprise performance	165
5.6	The empirical evidence on public enterprise performance	175
5.7	Public enterprise as a distributional instrument	184
5.8	What conclusions can be drawn from the evidence on public enterprise performance?	186
5.9	Conclusions	189
	Further reading	190
	Notes	190
6	INDUSTRIAL POLICIES AND DEVELOPMENT	192
	C. H. Kirkpatrick, N. Lee and F. I. Nixson
6.1	Introduction	192
6.2	Trade strategies for industrialisation	197
6.3	Industrial planning	200
6.4	Industrial concentration and competition policy	205
6.5	Regulation of transnational corporations	208
6.6	Development of small-scale enterprises	212
6.7	Technological development	215

Contents

ix

6.8 Control and accountability of public enterprises	218
6.9 Spatial imbalances and industrial location policies	221
6.10 Conclusions	228
Further reading	230
Notes	231
Bibliography	233
Author index	254
Subject index	259