

PERSONNEL ADMINISTRATION

A Point of View and a Method

Seventh Edition

Paul Pigors

Massachusetts Institute of Technology

Charles A. Myers

Massachusetts Institute of Technology

International Student Edition

McGRAW-HILL KOGAKUSHA, LTD.

Tokyo Düsseldorf Johannesburg London Mexico
New Delhi Panama Rio de Janeiro Singapore Sydney

Contents

Preface

vii

PART 1

A	Management and Personnel Administration	3
1	Managers and Their Personnel Concepts	5
2	Personnel Administration and the Line Organization	24
3	Organization Planning and Management Development	40
4	Managing and Working in a Changing World	59
B	The Individual in the Organization	85
5	Interpersonal Communication	87
6	Inner Motivation, Individual Goals, and Teamwork	107
7	A New Role for the First-level Supervisor	124
8	Employees and Labor Organizations	146
C	Diagnosing Organizational Health	165
9	Situational Thinking	167
10	Interviewing	185
11	Indicators of Organizational Health; Using Personnel Research	200
12	Labor Turnover and Internal Mobility	215
13	Complaints and Grievances	228

D	Developing Human Resources: A Personnel Policy System	243
14	Job Description and Analysis	247
15	Recruitment, Selection, and Placement	267
16	Training and Performance Appraisal	288
17	Promotions, Transfers, and Separations	307
18	Constructive Discipline	322
19	Managing Changes in Jobs and Work Schedules	341
E	Providing Pay and Services	359
20	Wage and Salary Policies and Administration	361
21	Pay Incentive Systems; Sharing Productivity Gains	384
22	Programs for Employee Health and Safety: An Ecological Approach	408
F	Summary	429
23	What Future for Personnel Administration?	431

PART 2

CASE ILLUSTRATIONS

	Introduction—Cases and Case Method: Notes from Experience	441
Case 1	The Old-line Foreman	455
Case 2	Who Owns the Improved Tool?	464
Case 3	Dissatisfactions of an Expatriate Engineer	471
Case 4	The Girl and the Computer	476
Case 5	Managing Highly Motivated Secretaries	481
Case 6	Conflict of Interest?	486
Case 7	The Good-neighbor Policy	491
Case 8	A Need for Policy-centered Thinking	495
Case 9	The "Outside" Inspectors	501
Case 10	The Rejected Applicant for Employment (New Engineer)	509
Case 11	Will More Money Be a Motivator?	513
Case 12	An Engineer and a Machinist (Needs for Orientation and Explanation)	519
Case 13	Factors in Promotion Policy (Selection of a Head Lift-truck Operator)	523
Case 14	Discharge for "Proper Cause"? (Shop Steward Harris)	531
Case 15	Discharge for "Insubordination" (Irene Mason)	536
Case 16	Approaches to Introducing Job Changes (Caledonia Woolen Mills)	546
Case 17	Difficulties Connected with Work Scheduling	550
Case 18	A Dispute over Rates on Three Jobs (Wilshire Shoe Company)	559
Case 19	Fear? or Featherbedding?	563
	Name Index	567
	Subject Index	573