

Perspectives on Social Power

edited by
James T. Tedeschi
SUNY Albany

ALDINE PUBLISHING COMPANY chicago

Contents

Contributors	ix
Preface	xi
Introduction and Overview
James T. Tedeschi	1
Part I. ATTRIBUTIONS OF POWER
1. Power and Probability
William A. Gamson	19
2. Attributions of Interpersonal Power
John Schopler and Bruce D. Layton	34
Part II. THE SOURCE OF POWER AND INFLUENCE
3. The Nature of Trust
William H. Riker	63
4. The Powerholder
David Kipnis	82
Part III. THE TARGET OF INFLUENCE
5. Further Thoughts on the Processes of Compliance, Identification, and Internalization
Herbert C. Kelman	125
6. The Comparative Analysis of Power and Power Preference
Bertram H. Raven	172
	vii

Part IV. ANALYSIS OF INDIVIDUAL-SYSTEM RELATIONSHIPS

7. Power and Utilities in a Simulated Inter-religious Council: A Situational Approach to Interparty Decision-Making
Daniel Druckman and Richard M. Rozelle with Roger M. Krause and Robert Mahoney 201

Part V. POLITICAL POWER

8. Power in Cross-Cultural Perspective: Tribal Politics
Robert M. Carmack 255
9. Legitimacy as a Base of Social Influence
H. Andrew Michener and Martha R. Burt 310
10. Campus Crisis: The Search for Power
Dean G. Pruitt and James P. Gahagan 349

Part VI. THE MEANS OF INFLUENCE

11. Economic Power
David A. Baldwin 395

- Index* 415