

Rajesh Chandra

Industrialization and Development in the Third World

London and New York

Contents

List of plates	viii
List of figures	ix
List of tables	xi
Acknowledgements	xiii
Preface	xv

1 Industrialization and development in the Third World	1
Introduction	1
Definitions	4
Case study A: Third World dependence	7
The international context of Third World industrialization	9
Viewing Third World industrialization: different perspectives	13
Key ideas	16
2 The historical dimensions of Third World industrialization	17
Introduction	17
Colonialism	18
Decolonization and independence	21
The legacy of colonialism	22
Case study B: Colonialism and industrialization in Kenya	24
Colonialism and industrialization	26
Independence and industrialization	28
Key ideas	29

3	The level and structure of Third World industrialization	30
	Introduction	30
	The level of Third World industrialization	30
	Regional contrasts in Third World industrialization	32
	Case study C: South Korean industrialization	36
	Reasons for differential growth	44
	The structure of Third World manufacturing production	46
	Case study D: Manufacturing market structure in Fiji	50
	Key ideas	51
4	The organization of manufacturing in the Third World	53
	Introduction	53
	Foreign investment	53
	Case study E: Multinationals from developing countries	59
	State ownership of manufacturing	62
	The organization and scale of firms	64
	Case study F: Small-scale manufacturing in the Philippines	67
	Key ideas	71
5	The location of manufacturing in the Third World	72
	Introduction	72
	International restructuring and foreign direct investment in developing countries	73
	Case study G: International economic restructuring and AMSTRAD computers	74
	The main domestic locational factors	78
	The pattern of location of manufacturing in developing countries	81
	Case study H: Location of industry in South Korea	81
	Case study I: Location of manufacturing in Fiji	84
	Key ideas	90
6	The state and industrialization in the Third World	92
	Introduction	92
	Different roles of the state	93
	Import-substitution industrialization	95
	Export-oriented industrial policies	99
	Case study J: Privatization	103
	Import substitution or export orientation?	104
	Case study K: Poor economic policies and state enterprises in Togo	106
	Key ideas	109

7 Conclusion	111
Summary	111
Future prospects of Third World industrialization	114
Review questions and further reading	118
Index	122