

JNTWI - TRA

5 NE
Institut für
Iberoamerika-Kunde,
Hamburg

6 NE
Institut für Lateinamerika-forschung und Entwicklungszusammenarbeit, St.Gallen

1 NE
Jean-Max Baumer / Albrecht von Gleich with
2 NE
Renate Heierli / Karsten Jaspersen
3 NE 4 NE

Transnational Corporations in Latin America

Interactions between Nation States and Transnational Corporations:
The Case of German and Swiss Firms operating in Colombia, Brazil and Mexico

Verlag Rüegger

Table of Contents

	page
Colombia
Part 1:
Points of Departure for Interactions Between Transnational Companies and Governments	1
1. The Long Period of Liberalism	3
1.1 1850 – 1930: Investment without Nation-State Boundaries	3
1.2 1930 – 1960: Crisis – Protectionism – Opening Up – Crisis	6
2. The Change in Economic Policy	11
2.1 The Problems and the Criticism Grow	11
2.2 Milestone 1967: Decreto-Ley 444	14
2.3 TNC under new Rules: Reactions	16
3. Stricter Direction of the Development by the State	20
3.1 Five Crucial Target Areas	20
3.2 Economic Policy Measures and their Presumable Effects on the Crucial Targets	22
4. Transnational Corporations: Multi-Layered Inner Logic	25
4.1 Motives and Target Variations	25
4.2 Variable Expression of Transnationality	27
5. Nation-State and Transnational Company Interest: The Problem of Compatibility	30
5.1 Some Hypotheses on Conflict – Cooperation – Indifference	30
5.2 Table of Target Comparisons	33
6. Methodology	34
6.1 Data Collection and Gathering of Additional Information	34
6.2 Presentation of Empirical Results	37

Part 2:

Empirical Analysis	39
1. Modernisation and Colombianisation – an Area of Tension	41
2. The Modernisation of the Colombian Economy as an Area of Cooperation Between State and Company: The Demand of the Government for a Contribution of the Foreign Firms to Colombia's Technological Development	46
2.1 The Transfer of Technology and Know-How from the Country of Origin to Colombia	46
2.1.1 Basic Mechanisms	46
2.1.2 Compensation for Imported Technology	48
– Agreements on Technical Assistance	50
– The Choice of Technology	51
2.1.3 The Protection of Know-How by Patents	52
2.1.4 The Protection of Trademarks	55
2.2 Transfer of Profits and Reinvestment	57
3. Colombianisation as a Subject of Conflict and Negotiation in the Relations Between State and Company: The Linking of Foreign and Domestic Capital	59
4. The Inclusion of the Firms into Policies of Economic Equilibrium and National Integration	65
4.1 Introduction	65
4.2 Monetary Equilibrium	68
4.2.1 Price Controls	68
4.2.2 The Access of Foreign Firms to Credit	71
4.3 Employment	73
4.4 Regional Equilibrium	76
4.5 Ecological Equilibrium	78
5. The Politico-Economic Target of the Equilibrium of Balance of Payments as a General Condition for Entrepreneurial Activity	79
5.1 Basic Issues	79

5.2.	The Commitment of Foreign Firms to Export	81
5.3	Imports and Import Procedure	84
5.3.1	The Import Procedure	84
5.3.2	Customs Bureaucracy	87
5.3.3	Summarizing Assessment of the Import Situation	88
6.	The Control of Foreign Companies as an Instrument of Economic Policy Making	90

Bibliography		95
---------------------	--	----

List of Tables

Table 1:	U.S. Direct Investment in Colombia 1897 – 1929	5
Table 2:	U.S. Direct Investment in Colombia 1936 – 1966	10
Table 3:	Approvals and Registrations of Foreign Capital 1967 – 1979	17
Table 4:	Foreign Investments by Country of Origin at Dec. 31, 1979	18
Table 5:	Foreign Investments by Sectors and Branches at Dec. 31, 1979	19
Table 6:	Impact Analysis of Economic Policy Measures on the Five Crucial Targets of the Nation-State	24
Table 7:	Nation-State Targets and TNC Goals	33

Brazil and Mexico

1. Introduction	101
2. The Brazilian foreign investment policy	105
2.1 The general framework	105
a) The general, sectorial, and regional economic policies	107
b) Ownership and performance-oriented policies	108
c) Legal character and policy applications	110
2.2 The Brazilian position toward foreign investments	111
2.3 The changing characteristics of foreign investments in Brazil	113
3. Experiences and views of the TNC in Brazil – the case of German and Swiss investors	121
3.1 The characteristics of the sample and of the interviewed persons	121
3.2 Summary of the findings	122
3.2.1 Principal investment decisions	123
3.2.2 Financing	127
3.2.3 Input questions	128
3.2.4 Technology issues	130
3.2.5 Personnel and labour relations	132
3.2.6 Sales, price control, competition	136
3.2.7 Exports	138
4. Characteristics of the Mexican foreign investment policy	141
4.1 Introductory remarks	141
4.2 Background and framework of the Mexicanization concept	142
4.3 Elements of the foreign investment policy in the Mexican industrial sector	144
4.4 Size and characteristics of foreign investment in Mexico	147
5. Experiences and views of the TNC in Mexico – the case of German and Swiss investors	153

5.1	The characteristics of the sample and of the interviewed persons	153
5.2	Summary of the findings	154
5.2.1	Judgements of the investment climate in Mexico: encouragements and restrictions	154
5.2.2	The impact of the policy toward TNC on the investment decisions of the firms	156
5.2.3	Promotion of industrial activities, investment incentives	161
5.2.4	Financing, capital and profit transfer	162
5.2.5	Utilization of local inputs; import restrictions	163
5.2.6	Technology issues	164
5.2.7	Personnel and labour relations	167
6.	Conclusions	170
	Bibliography	174