

LEGACY OF FLIGHT

The Guggenheim Contribution to American Aviation

RICHARD P. HALLION

UNIVERSITY OF WASHINGTON PRESS
Seattle and London

Contents

1.	American Aviation in the Mid-1920s	3
2.	Daniel Guggenheim and the Beginning of Guggenheim Aeronautical Philanthropy	20
3.	The Creation of The Daniel Guggenheim Fund for the Promotion of Aeronautics	31
4.	The Beginning of National Aeronautical Engineering Education: The Seven Major Guggenheim University Grants, 1926-30	45
5.	Extending the Guggenheim Aeronautical Education Program	71
6.	The Guggenheim Model Air Line and Weather Service	86
7.	The Guggenheim Assault on Blind Flight	101
8.	The Daniel Guggenheim International Safe Aircraft Competition	128
9.	Improving Aviation's Image	152
10.	Prelude to Space: The Guggenheims and Aviation Development since 1930	169
	Appendixes	186
	Introduction	186

Appendix 1: The Impact of the California Institute of Technology on American Air Transport and Aeronautical Development, 1926-41	187
Appendix 2: Aeronautical Progress at the Other Guggenheim Schools, 1926-41	207
Notes	231
Bibliographical Essay	262
Selected Bibliography	266
Index	279