

Industry and Politics in West Germany

TOWARD THE THIRD REPUBLIC

Edited by
PETER J. KATZENSTEIN

CORNELL UNIVERSITY PRESS

Ithaca and London

Contents

Contributors	vii
Preface	ix
PART I. INTRODUCTION
1. Industry in a Changing West Germany PETER J. KATZENSTEIN	3
PART II. THREE TYPES OF CHANGE
2. Bipolarity and the Postwar International Economic Order JOANNE GOWA	33
3. Social Change and Political Mobilization in West Germany JOST HALFMANN	51
4. New Concepts of Production in West German Plants HORST KERN AND MICHAEL SCHUMANN	87
PART III. INDUSTRY RESPONSES
5. Successful Adjustment to Turbulent Markets: The Automobile Industry WOLFGANG STREECK	113
6. Political Consequences of Change: The Chemical Industry CHRISTOPHER S. ALLEN	157
7. Industrial Order and the Politics of Industrial Change: Mechanical Engineering GARY B. HERRIGEL	185

CONTENTS

8. Crisis Management "Made in Germany": The Steel Industry	221
JOSEF ESSER AND WOLFGANG FACH
9. Competitiveness and the Impact of Change: Applications of "High Technologies"	249
GERD JUNNE
10. Computer and Pinstripes: Financial Institutions	275
HERBERT OBERBECK AND MARTIN BAETHGE
PART IV: CONCLUSION
11. Stability and Change in the Emerging Third Republic	307
PETER J. KATZENSTEIN
Index	355