

THE CONTINUITIES OF
GERMAN HISTORY

Nation, Religion, and Race across the Long Nineteenth Century

HELMUT WALSER SMITH

Vanderbilt University

CAMBRIDGE
UNIVERSITY PRESS

CONTENTS

	Introduction	page 1
1	The Vanishing Point of German History	13
2	The Mirror Turn Lamp: Senses of the Nation before Nationalism	39
3	On Catastrophic Religious Violence and National Belonging: The Thirty Years War and the Massacre of Jews in Social Memory	74
4	From Play to Act: Anti-Jewish Violence in German and European History during the Long Nineteenth Century	115
5	Eliminationist Racism	167
	Conclusion: Continuities in German History	211
	Acknowledgments	235
	Index	239