

Contents

Acknowledgements	vii
Introduction: Focus and Limits	1
PART ONE: FRAMEWORKS
1 Intellectuals and Public Policy in France: An Overview	9
2 Intellectuals within Policy Processes: Conceptual Approaches	32
PART TWO: PROBES
3 Laicity: Architects and Interpreters	53
Prophets and Architects: Condorcet, Quinet, Buisson	54
Interpreting Laicity: The Debray and Stasi Reports (2002, 2003)	67
4 The Expression and Critique of Cultural Policy:
André Malraux and Pierre Bourdieu	86
André Malraux	87
Pierre Bourdieu	105
5 Curriculum Reform and Intellectuals: The Common and the General	122
Equality and the Idea of a Common Culture	122
The Langevin-Wallon Report (1944–1947)	128
Pierre Bourdieu: The Collège de France and the Bourdieu-Gros Reports (1985 and 1989)	138
Edgar Morin: ‘Quels savoirs enseigner dans les lycées?’ (1998)	150

Contents

6. Cultural Democracy: Representation, Institutions and Experimentation	161
Francis Jeanson	162
Michel de Certeau	175
7 Television: Anxiety and Care	194
The Kriegel Report (2002)	197
The Clément Report (2002)	206
Conclusion	216
Bibliography	223
Index	237