Contents

Notes on Contributors vii

Foreword
Michael A. Peters xi

1 Introduction: Hatred of Democracy ... and of the Public Role of Education?
Maarten Simons & Jan Masschelein 1

2 The Public Role of Teaching: To keep the door closed
Goele Cornelissen 15

3 Learner, Student, Speaker: Why it matters how we call those we teach
Gert Biesta 31

4 Ignorance and Translation, ‘Artifacts’ for Practices of Equality
Marc Derycke 43

5 Democratic Education: An (im)possibility that yet remains to come
Daniel Friedrich, Bryn Jaastad & Thomas S. Popkewitz 60

6 Governmental, Political and Pedagogic Subjectivation: Foucault with Rancière
Maarten Simons & Jan Masschelein 76

7 The Immigrant Has No Proper Name: The disease of consensual democracy within the myth of schooling
Carl Anders Säfström 93

8 Queer Politics in Schools: A Rancièrlean reading
Claudia W. Ruitenbergh 105

9 Paulo Freire’s Last Laugh: Rethinking critical pedagogy’s funny bone through Jacques Rancière
Tyson Edward Lewis 121

10 Settling no Conflict in the Public Place: Truth in education, and in Rancièrlean scholarship
Charles Bingham 134

11 The Hatred of Public Schooling: The school as the mark of democracy
Jan Masschelein & Maarten Simons 150
12 Endgame: Reading, writing, talking (and perhaps thinking) in a faculty of education
Jorge Larrosa

Index