

An Assessment of the Legal Framework for Budget Transparency, Participation and Management in Kenya

Bosire Nyamori

Discussion Paper No. 104/2008

The Author

Bosire Nyamori (LL.M) is a lawyer and a law lecturer at Kenyatta University.

Acknowledgements

I am grateful to IPAR for providing institutional support for the research. In the course of writing this paper, a number of individuals assisted me, all of whom I owe a lot of gratitude. These include Tiberius Basara of IPAR who introduced me to what is turning out to be an exciting area of study; Phyllis Makau of the National Assembly's Office of Fiscal Analysis; Professor Arthur Eshiwani, Dr. Robert Nyamori and the anonymous reviewers for their useful comments and observations. I remain responsible for the views and any errors in the paper though.

Table of Contents

Acknowledgements.....	i
Abbreviations and Acronyms.....	iv
Abstract.....	1
1. Introduction.....	1
2. Transparency, Participation and Management.....	3
2.1 Understanding the Concepts.....	3
2.2 Importance of the Concepts to the Budget Process.....	5
3. Analytical Framework.....	7
4. The Legal Regime, Transparency and the Budget Process.....	9
4.1. Overview.....	9
4.2. Critique.....	14
5. Conclusion and Recommendations.....	26
5.1 Conclusions.....	26
5.2 Recommendations.....	28
References.....	31