

ECOLOGICAL IMPACTS OF THE OIL INDUSTRY

Proceedings of International Meeting organized by The Institute of Petroleum and held in London in November 1987

Edited by BRIAN DICKS

Published on behalf of
The Institute of Petroleum, London

1989

JOHN WILEY & SONS

Chichester • New York • Brisbane • Toronto • Singapore

CONTENTS

| | |
|---|-----|
| List of Contributors | vii |
| Foreword | ix |
| The Origins and Growth of the Oil Pollution Research Unit J. M. Baker and B. Dicks | 1 |
| Rocky-shore Monitoring A. Little and K. Hiscock | 9 |
| Oil in Wetlands J. M. Baker, J. A. Bayley, S. E. Howells, J. Oldham and M. Wilson | 37 |
| The Effects of Oil and Dispersants on Seagrasses in Milford Haven S. Howard, J. M. Baker and K. Hiscock | 61 |
| Sediment Macrobenthic Communities from Oil Ports to Offshore Oilfields D. Levell, D. Rostron and I. M. T. Dixon | 97 |
| Determination of Hydrocarbons in Environmental Samples: Sampling and Analytical Variability S. E. Howells, N. M. Dodd and C. Turner | 135 |
| The Role of Dispersants in the Persistence and Fate of Oil in Sediments D. I. Little and J. M. Baker | 169 |
| Sediment and Contaminant Transport in Milford Haven D. I. Little and P. McLaren | 203 |
| Coastal Sensitivity Mapping for Oil Spills B. Dicks and R. Wright | 235 |

| | |
|---|------------|
| Monitoring the Sullom Voe Terminal S. S. C. Westwood, G. M. Dunnet and K. Hiscock | 261 |
| Refinery-effluent Discharges into Milford Haven and Southampton Water B. Dicks and D. Levell | 287 |