

MONEY AND BANKING
IN THE UK:
A History

MICHAEL COLLINS

CROOM HELM
London • New York • Sydney

CONTENTS

List of tables

List of figures

Abbreviations

| | |
|---|----|
| PREFACE | 1 |
| ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS | 5 |
| PART I: 1826-1913 | |
| 1 BANKING IN THE EARLY NINETEENTH CENTURY | 9 |
| Early banking history | 10 |
| Economic crisis and the legislation of 1826 | 15 |
| Structure of the banking system | 20 |
| Summary | 29 |
| Notes | 30 |
| 2 GROWTH OF THE BANKING SECTOR, 1826-1913 | 34 |
| The importance and definition of money | 35 |
| Components of the stock of money | 38 |
| Financial institutions | 51 |
| Conclusion | 60 |
| Notes | 61 |
| 3 THE COMMERCIAL BANKS: INSTITUTIONAL CHANGE, 1826-1913 | 64 |
| Main trends | 64 |
| The corporate structure | 65 |
| Bank branching | 75 |
| Bank amalgamations | 78 |
| The stability of banks and economic fluctuations | 81 |
| Conclusion | 87 |
| Notes | 88 |

| | | |
|---|---|-----|
| 4 | THE BUSINESS OF COMMERCIAL BANKING, 1826-1913 | 92 |
| | Bank liabilities | 93 |
| | Bank assets | 103 |
| | Banking advice and financial services | 114 |
| | The commercial banks and economic development | 114 |
| | Notes | 118 |
| 5 | THE MONETARY SECTOR AND THE INTER- NATIONAL ECONOMY | 123 |
| | The importance of international factors | 123 |
| | Britain's adoption of the gold standard in the early nineteenth century | 125 |
| | International exchange rates | 126 |
| | Stable exchange rates and the foreign exchange market | 130 |
| | Adjustment mechanisms | 133 |
| | Assessment of traditional adjustment mechanism under the international gold standard, 1870-1913 | 141 |
| | The role of sterling | 148 |
| | The Bank of England and the monetary interpretation of balance of payments | 157 |
| | Notes | 160 |
| 6 | THE BANK OF ENGLAND AND MONETARY POLICY, 1826-1913 | 167 |
| | Why did the Bank of England become a central bank? | 167 |
| | Legislation | 171 |
| | The Bank and the gold standard | 178 |
| | Techniques of monetary control | 181 |
| | Lender of last resort | 188 |
| | The Bank and the money markets | 189 |
| | Private v public interests | 191 |
| | Notes | 193 |

PART II: 1914-1939

| | | |
|----------|--|------------|
| 7 | DEPOSIT BANKING AND OTHER FINANCIAL INSTITUTIONS, 1914-1939 | 201 |
| | Deposit bank expansion | 203 |
| | Affiliations and amalgamations | 207 |
| | Competition in banking | 211 |
| | Private sector liquidity and non-bank financial intermediaries | 213 |
| | Conclusion | 222 |
| | Notes | 223 |
| 8 | THE BUSINESS OF COMMERCIAL BANKING, 1914-1939 | 227 |
| | Clearing banks' balance sheets | 228 |
| | Clearing bank liabilities | 228 |
| | Clearing bank assets | 238 |
| | Industrial and commercial finance | 255 |
| | Customer services | 259 |
| | Summary | 260 |
| | Notes | 262 |
| 9 | MONETARY POLICY, 1914-1939 | 268 |
| | The 1914 banking crisis | 269 |
| | Impact of World War I | 272 |
| | Return to gold, 1925 | 276 |
| | The 1931 crisis and devaluation | 283 |
| | Monetary policy in the 1930s | 291 |
| | Conclusion | 306 |
| | Notes | 307 |

PART III: 1939-1986

| | | |
|-----------|--|------------|
| 10 | WAR AND POST-WAR ADJUSTMENTS, 1939-51 | 317 |
| | Total war, 1939-45 | 317 |
| | The years of recovery, 1945-51 | 327 |
| | Notes | 348 |

| | | |
|----|---|------------|
| 11 | NON-CLEARING BANKS AND OTHER FINANCIAL INTERMEDIARIES SINCE WORLD WAR II | 353 |
| | Banks and other financial inter- mediaries | 353 |
| | Relative growth of financial institutions | 355 |
| | The London money market | 358 |
| | The discount market | 360 |
| | Parallel money markets and inst- itutions | 365 |
| | Sterling money markets | 370 |
| | Eurocurrency markets | 374 |
| | Summary on developments in parallel markets | 378 |
| | Bank stability and prudential supervision | 379 |
| | Non-bank financial intermediaries | 388 |
| | Developments in retail banking | 389 |
| | Notes | 392 |
| 12 | THE CLEARING BANKS, 1939-1986 | 397 |
| | Amalgamations and institutional change | 398 |
| | Growth of the clearing banks since World War II | 404 |
| | Reasons for clearers' relative decline | 412 |
| | The clearing banks' balance sheets | 421 |
| | Liabilities | 426 |
| | Assets | 432 |
| | Banks and industry | 445 |
| | Summary | 447 |
| | Notes | 449 |
| 13 | MONETARY POLICY IN THE 1950S AND 1960S | 456 |
| | Constraints on the operation of monetary policy | 457 |
| | The 1950s - revival of monetary policy | 468 |

| | |
|--|------------|
| Policy in the 1950s and 1960s | 471 |
| Policy appraisal | 481 |
| Notes | 483 |
| 14 MONETARY POLICY IN THE 1970S AND 1980S | 488 |
| Prudential controls | 488 |
| Greater market freedom | 489 |
| Techniques of monetary control | 494 |
| Reasons for the increased importance of monetary policy | 509 |
| Validity of the 'new' monetary policy | 511 |
| Practical monetarism | 525 |
| Notes | 528 |
| 15 THE UNITED KINGDOM AND INTERNATIONAL FINANCIAL ARRANGEMENTS SINCE 1951 | 534 |
| General background | 534 |
| The 1950s: the sterling area and sterling balances | 538 |
| The 1960s: exchange instability | 545 |
| 1970s and 1980s: floating exchange rates | 555 |
| Notes | 572 |
| 16 RETROSPECTIVE | 579 |
| Commercial banking sector | 579 |
| Monetary policy | 584 |
| United Kingdom and the international financial system | 588 |
| Notes | 591 |
| BIBLIOGRAPHY | 593 |
| GENERAL INDEX | 627 |
| INDEX OF NAMES | 639 |