

The Ideological Origins of Nazi Imperialism

WOODRUFF D. SMITH

New York Oxford
OXFORD UNIVERSITY PRESS
1986

Contents

- ONE Introduction, 3
Continuity and Ideology in the Historiography of German Imperialism, 3
Imperialism and the Autonomy of Politics, 11
Ideology in Modern Political Systems, 13
 Structure, 14
 Functions, 16
- TWO The Origins of the German Imperialist Ideologies, 21
Migrationist Colonialism, 21
Economic Imperialism, 30
The Colonial Movement of the 1870s and 1880s, 32
- THREE Wilhelmian Politics: The Role of Ideology in a Fragmented Society, 41
Perceptions of Change, 41
Wilhelmian Politics and Political Fragmentation, 44
The Search for a New Politics, 49
- FOUR Weltpolitik, 52
The Weltpolitiker, 53
The Structure of Weltpolitik, 64
Social Imperialism and Liberal Imperialism, 81
- FIVE Lebensraum, 83
The Elements of Lebensraum, 83
Lebensraum and the Pan-German League, 94

- SIX Imperialist Ideologies in Conflict, 1890–1914, 112
Colonial Development Policy, 113
Mittelafrika and the Second Moroccan Crisis, 129
- SEVEN Legitimation and Integration in Wilhelmian Imperialism, 1890–1914, 141
The Legitimation of German Imperialism, 141
Attempts at Integration in Imperialist Ideology, 152
- EIGHT The First World War, 166
Weltpolitik and War Aims, 168
Lebensraum at War, 174
Weltpolitik and Reform, 185
The Triumph of Lebensraum in 1917–18, 187
- NINE Imperialist Ideology in the Weimar Republic, 196
Continuities in Weltpolitik, 196
Continuity and Change in Lebensraum Ideology, 203
Colonialism and the Colonial Movement, 213
Geopolitics, 218
Hans Grimm and the Popularization of Lebensraum, 224
- TEN Nazi Imperialism, 231
Nazi Ideology, 232
The Imperialist Aspect of Nazi Ideology, 238
Conclusion, 255
- Notes, 259
- Bibliography, 309
- Index, 327