

An educational war on poverty

American and British policy-making 1960–1980

Harold Silver

and

Pamela Silver

Cambridge University Press

Cambridge

New York Port Chester

Melbourne Sydney

Contents

Acknowledgments	page ix
List of abbreviations	xi
1 Introduction: a proper complexity	1
Part I A pattern of events: United States
2 Poverty and education: changing concerns and concepts	13
3 Education: children and intervention	30
4 Learning their way out of poverty?	70
5 Education and the prime target	93
6 An effort to understand	114
Part II A pattern of events: Britain
7 Advancing from poverty?	147
8 Opportunity, equality and social class	158
9 Sounds and silences	187
10 Plowden: direction finding	210
11 Plowden: making choices	236
Part III Following through
12 United States: planned and unplanned variation	257
13 Britain: units of concern	287
14 Directions	318
Interviews and consultation	340
Bibliography	346
Index	437
	vii