

Aquatic and Wetland Plants of the Western Gulf Coast

Charles D. Stutzenbaker

Texas A&M University Press Edition

TEXAS A&M UNIVERSITY PRESS | COLLEGE STATION

Contents

---

List of Nomenclature Changes	viii
Preface to the Texas A&M University Press Edition	ix
Preface to the Original Edition	xi
Introduction
The Western Gulf Coast	1
Scientific Names	2
Common Names	2
Phonetic Pronunciation	2
Family	2
Illustrations and Photography	2
Habitat Types	2
National and Regional Wetland Indications	2
Wildlife Values	3
Propagation	3
Management	3
Similar Species	3
Plant Descriptions Arranged by Growth Characteristics
Free-floating or suspended in water column	5
Rooted and rootless, submerged	35
Rooted, with floating leaves	77
Very tall emergents with spiked, clustered or plume-like tops	109
Emergents with white to whitish flowers	141
Emergents with yellow flowers	195
Emergents with blue flowers	221
Emergents with lilac to purple flowers	233
Emergents with pink or peach-colored flowers	251
Emergents with green, brownish or obscure flowers (includes most but not all sedges, rushes and grasses)	265
Climbing or vining	395
Shrubs	409
Shrubs with pinnately compound leaves	427
Trees	435
Glossary	450
Wetland Indicator Categories	453
Bibliography	458
Index	459