

BETWEEN THE WIRE AND THE WALL

A history of South African 'Coloured' politics

Gavin Lewis

David Philip: Cape Town & Johannesburg

Contents

Acknowledgements vi

Illustrations vii-x

Introduction: 'Coloured' history and 'Coloured' identity in South Africa 1

- 1 'Your votes are your guns': The emergence of Coloured political organisations at the Cape 7
 - 2 Franchise and education struggles 1905–1910 29
 - 3 The first decade of Union 64
 - 4 The failure of Coloured working-class organisations 1919–1931 92
 - 5 The National Party and the 'New Deal' for Coloured people 1918–1932 119
 - 6 The white liberals and the Coloured Commission 1931–1942 150
 - 7 Black unity and the failure of the radical challenge 1931–1942 174
 - 8 'O tempora, O mores!': The Coloured Advisory Council and non-collaboration 1943–1948 207
 - 9 The 1948 elections and the apartheid era 245
- References 287
Bibliography 323
Index 334