

A Vigorous Spirit of Enterprise

Merchants and Economic Development in Revolutionary Philadelphia

Thomas M.
Doerflinger

Published for the Institute of Early American History and Culture
Williamsburg, Virginia
by the University of North Carolina Press
Chapel Hill and London

Contents

	Acknowledgments	vii
	Introduction	3
PART I	The Character of the Merchant Community
1	Social Structure and Recruitment	11
	Merchant Princes and Paupers	20
	Merchants, Artisans, and Gentlemen	37
	How to Become a Merchant	45
	Friends and Churchmen	58
2	The Articulation of the Merchant Community	70
	Patterns of Commercial Specialization	77
	The Division between the Dry Goods and Provision Trades	82
	Suppliers and Distributors	122
	Mercantile Fortunes	126
3	Enterprise and Adversity	135
	The Fabric of Adversity	136
	The Response to Adversity	146
	The Dynamics of Enterprise: An Overview	157
PART II	The Revolution
4	Reluctant Revolutionaries	167
	The Economic Outlook, 1760–1775	168
	The Logic of Moderation	180
	Religion and Politics	185
	Moderation Applied	188

5	The Shock of War	197
	The Economics of Civil War	199
	The Four Phases of Commercial Disruption	207
	The Wartime Experience of the Merchants	212
	The Loyalists	218
	The Staff Officers	223
	The Fortune Builders	236
	The Immigrants	242
6	The Federalist Reaction	251
	The Pennsylvania Revolution	252
	The Counterrevolution in Congress	258
	The Commercial Context of Constitutional Reform	261
	The Shaping of a Federalist Consensus	267
	Merchants and the Federalist Coup	273
PART III Merchants and Economic Diversification
7	The Entrepreneurial Efflorescence	283
	Commercial Innovation	286
	The Bank of North America	296
	Securities Speculation	310
	Land Speculation	314
	Manufacturing	329
8	American Economic Development and the Case of Philadelphia	335
	Philadelphia and Her Competitors, 1780–1840	335
	Planters and Merchants	344
	The Case of Virginia	356
APPENDIX The Commercial World of Revolutionary Philadelphia
	Social Organization	367
	Shipping and Trade	369
	Mercantile Estates	375
	The Personal Property of Merchants	378

Bibliography	383
Quantifiable Records	383
Manuscripts	391
Doctoral Dissertations	396
Index	399